Appropriateness

In fitness for purpose lies the reason for the ever-increasing success of the printing of The Garden City Press. All printed matter has an object to achieve, and only when this end is ascertained do The Garden City Press plan. Then apt design, right choice of type, correct sense of balance and proportion are harmonised together to create a production best fitted to the purpose it is to serve. The Garden City Press prints for connoisseurs.

Dear Reader,

We are appealing, in the name of the English Martyrs, for the means to realise that for which they worked, suffered and died - the conversion of the people of this land to the Faith of their fathers.

Nearly 600 places in England and Wales are without either a Catholic church or a priest; making it impossible for Catholics resident there to practise their religion, or to bring up their children in the Faith, or for non-Catholics to be brought to the knowledge of our holy religion.

To remedy this state of things is the object of the '' Million Pound Fund '' for Church Extension.

The need for our work is obvious; and at the present moment, when the failure of all organised religion, outside the Church, is apparent, the opportunity is tremendous.

Will you, as an act of thanks-giving to our Martyrs in this Centenary Year of Catholic Emancipation, send us YOUR donation to the Million Fund ?

E. Huntly Gordon
(Secretary).

PREFACE

By His Eminence
CARDINAL BOURNE
Archbishop of Westminster

IT would be extremely interesting were we able, in the Centenary Year 1929, to read, examine and scrutinize a Catholic "Who's Who" for 1828 or the subsequent years. We have no such good fortune. Our forefathers or predecessors three generations ago had little leisure for such things. They had to do, and were not very much concerned about making a record of their doings.

In order, then, to form some slight idea of the men whose lives are closely connected with the work of the Catholic Church a hundred years ago in England, we have to turn elsewhere. With that purpose I have recently glanced through the Catholic Directories for 1828, 1829 and 1830. Even a hasty survey reveals many names closely connected with the period that we shall commemorate next year, and demonstrates the enormous progress which the Church has made in the hundred years since comparative freedom of action was gained for the exercise of her divine mission in this country.

The Directory of 1830 gives on p. 63 the full text of the Act of Emancipation with the following title: The Catholic Relief Bill, Intituled "An Act for the Relief of His Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects.—Received the Royal Assent April 13th and came into force April 23rd 1929, St. George's Day.

Elsewhere we find the names of the two Bishops in London who doubtless celebrated that year, in the joy of a newly won liberty, the feast of the heavenly protector of England kept already in those days as a double of the first class. They were Bishop James Yorke Bramston, Vicar Apostolic of the London District, and Bishop Robert Gradwell who had been consecrated as his coadjutor on June 24th in the previous year. As so often happens in the divine ordering of the world the great protagonists of the liberties of Catholics did not live to see the triumph of their efforts. The absence of this human satisfaction was no doubt more than requited by the unalloyed rejoicing which it was theirs to share in heaven. The great Prelate, Bishop William Poynter, born at Petersfield in 1762, had died on November 26th, 1827, after an Episcopate of nearly twenty-five years in London, during sixteen of which he was Vicar Apostolic. The Directory tells us his heart "was conveyed to St Edmund's College to be deposited beneath the foot of the Altar where the Priest stands to begin Mass" . . . "in hoc Collegio Catholico, Fidei Seminario unde nunquam fuerat avulsum cor suum." Sturdy Bishop John Milner, Vicar Apostolic of the Midland District, had already on April 19th, 1926, found in death the repose which apparently was never very congenial to him in life. Both these men had done great work for God, the Church, and England, in their respective spheres and according to their individual qualities and gifts. Now they were united where there could be no more misunderstandings.

On page 70 the Directory of 1829 tells us of the "York Catholic Defence Society," of which the Honourable Edward Petre is the President. It is "to tend to the extinction of the absurd prejudices against the Catholic Religion, which are still prevalent in this country." It has a Library and issues tracts, numbering several thousand. "Any person desirous of becoming acquainted with the principles of the Catholic Religion may obtain the loan of the most approved Catholic Publications gratis." This was clearly a forerunner of our Catholic Truth Society.

On page 3 there is an appeal for the London Mission Fund. "Every person becoming a member . . . participates in the benefit of four Masses that are celebrated every week in the Bishop's College" (i.e. St. Edmund's College, Old Hall, where these intentions are still remembered).

Prefixed to this Directory is the usual Ordo Recitandi, etc., in which are many notes, evidently in the writing of Bishop Gradwell, throwing interesting lights on events of that period. I will quote some of them. February 21. News of Pope Leo XII's death on 10 Feb. March 5. Funeral service at Moorfields for Pope. Preached. March 17. At St. Patrick's in pontificals. Dr. Bramston sung Mass. . . . Mr. O'Connell there. 18. Visited Mr. O'Connell. 24. Went with Mr. Tuite to Old Hall Green. 19. Dr. Bramston consecrated Dr. Macdonnell Bishop of Olympus for West Indies. I preached. April 3. At Parliament third reading of Catholic bill in the Lords. 13. Writing pastoral for the Pope's election (Pius VIII elected March 31st). 22. Writing to Dr. Wiseman with letter of congratulation to the Pope. 28. At House of Lords to see Duke of Norfolk, Lord Clifford, Lord Dormer take seats in House of Lords. May 2. At Kensington visiting Duke of Sussex, saw Princess Victoria and duchess of Kent. 10. Sung Mass Chelsea. . . . The Howards, Stourtons, Staffords, O'Connell there. June 23. Went to Old Hall Green for the Exhibition with Dr. Bramston and Mr. Tuite. 25. Wrote memorial to Lord Aberdeen about the Armenian Catholics at Constantinople. August 30. Jubilee began at Moorfields. (From September 10th to 26th he was visiting the Channel Isles.) December 4. House in Golden Square bought for Bishop's residence. (This is the house, 35 Golden Square, whither the Vicars Apostolic were now to move from 4 Castle Street, Holborn, where they had lived for many years, though Bishop Bramston resided at Tavistock Street, Bedford Square. It remained their residence until the restoration of the Hierarchy, when it became in reality the first Archbishop's House, Cardinal Wiseman continuing to live there till 1855.) 27. At South Street Portuguese Chapel. Mr. Morris preached on its going to be closed.

This reference to the Portuguese Chapel, the name of which was from 1830 to be no longer found in the Catholic Directory, makes it useful to set down the titles of the few Churches or Chapels existing at that period in or near London. The list is taken from the Directory of 1830, compiled, of course, in the closing months of the year of Emancipation. St. Mary's Moorfields; Virginia Street; German, Bow lane; Sardinian, Lincoln's-inn-fields; St. Patrick's, Soho; Bavarian, Warwick-street; Spanish, Spanish-place; French, Little George-street; Westminster, Marsham-street; Chelsea New Chapel, Cadogan-place; Kensington, Holland Street; Hammersmith, King-street and Brook Green House; Acton; Isleworth; Richmond; Somerstown, Clarendon Square; Hampstead, Holly-place; Poplar, Wade-street; Stratford; Bermondsey, East-lane; Tottenham, White-hart-lane; London Road, St. George's Fields; Greenwich; Woolwich. If anyone will glance at the Catholic Directory for 1929, or at the maps which are on sale showing the Catholic Churches now in London, he will be able to understand more clearly the progress that has resulted from the unfettered liberty of priests and people. And it is to be remembered that in addition there are the many private or semi-public Chapels of religious communities and institutes. Similar advance may in like manner be traced all over England and Wales.

It is fitting to conclude this brief survey of men and things in 1829 by asking where at this time were the four great champions whom God was already preparing for the upbuilding and extending of His liberated Church in England. What were they doing in 1829? John Henry Newman, born in 1801, and thus a man of twenty-eight, was still seeking gropingly the light which was to be given to him so abundantly a decade and a half later. Nicholas Wiseman, born in 1802, just appointed Rector of the English College in Rome, was unknowingly preparing himself by prayer and study for his still unrevealed future career as first Archbishop of Westminster and Cardinal of S. Pudentiana. Henry Edward Manning, born in 1808, was just coming of age and with hesitation and uncertainty making choice of a career. No thought of the first place in a restored Catholic hierarchy, no vision of Westminster or of the Roman purple can have entered his mind already conscious of its powers. Herbert Vaughan was still unborn. In 1832 he was to enter that already emancipated Catholic England in which by the founding of S. Joseph's Missionary College, by the building of the Metropolitan Cathedral of Westminster, and by an exceptionally fruitful Episcopate of more than thirty years, he was to play so conspicuous a part.

As I write these lines in the Bishop's Room at St. Edmund's College, occupied so often by all the Vicars Apostolic since the end of the eighteenth century, subsequently by the Archbishops of Westminster, and by so many other Prelates—surrounded by the memories and treasures, including now the body of the Venerable John Southworth, which from 1568 unite us indissolubly with the Douai of our Martyrs—I give thanks to God for the heroic men who kept alive the faith in England at the cost of liberty and life, and who by their heroism made certain the recovery one day of our religious freedom, and the gradual rebuilding of the Jerusalem of God's Church in this fair land of England. May their memory be ever cherished, may their names be ever praised.

FRANCIS CARDINAL BOURNE,
Archbishop of Westminster.

THE KALENDAR

1929

THE Ecclesiastical Year begins with Advent, and is divided into four parts —namely, Winter, beginning with Advent ; Spring, with the first Sunday in Lent ; Summer, with Trinity Sunday ; and Autumn, with September. The Feasts or Festivals are partly movable and partly on fixed days.

Besides the Sundays, there are Holidays of Obligation ; also Days of Devotion, Rogation Days, Ember Days, and Days of Fasting and Abstinence.

The Saints are distinguished as—Apostles and Evangelists, Martyrs, Confessors and Pontiffs (or Bishops), Doctors, Confessors not Pontiffs, Abbots, Virgins, etc.

In the following Kalendar the Saints are chiefly Saints whose offices are celebrated in the Church generally, or in Great Britain.

Abbreviations.—Ab, Abbot ; Abst, Abstinence Day ; Ap, Apostle ; Bp, Bishop ; D, Doctor ; F, Feast ; Fast, Fasting Day ; K, King ; M, Martyr ; P, Pope ; Q, Queen ; V, Virgin ; W, Widow.

AVERY'S

BEAUTIFUL BLINDS & CURTAINS

WITH the development of artistic taste, people now realise that the window, according to the manner in which it is treated, becomes either an added beauty, or a disfigurement to artistic surroundings. From inside or out, the final touch of elegance depends upon tasteful window furnishing.

Messrs. AVERY & Co. claim to be experts in this particular, both from the artistic and the technical points of view. For over three-quarters of a century, the firm has maintained a reputation for supplying THE BEST POSSIBLE in relation to window furnishing, both as to material and workmanship. And in this, as in most cases, the best is, in the long run, the cheapest.

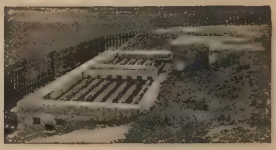
PURIFICATION OF WATER AND SEWAGE

WATER FILTER

We have installed a complete Water Filtration and Sterilisation Plant at Besford Court Colony, which is working very satisfactorily.



SEWAGE PURIFICATION SCHEME

Cesspools, and Septic Tanks alone, produce a septic liquid, poisonous in the same sense as a septic wound. Our bacterial system produces an effluent comparable to rain-water in appearance, free from smell and incapable of causing a nuisance.

We have installed Sewage Purification Installations at :

TAKITOUT

TAKE IT OUT

PATENT HYGIENIC MATTRESS

Awarded Certificate of the Institute of Hygiene.

EASY TO CLEAN THE FILLING

EASY TO WASH THE TICK

THE TAKITOUT MATTRESS is particularly suitable for Boarding Schools. As the above illustration shows, by just unbuttoning the tick the whole filling can be taken right out in one piece. This filling is of strong new curled hair, woven together, and it can be easily aired and disinfected.

The Tick can be washed repeatedly.

The fact that the hair filling is woven makes it impossible for this mattress ever to become lumpy.

Supplied to Convent Schools throughout the Country.

PATENT STONE FACING COMPOSITION

LAPIDOSUS LIMITED, 90-1 High Holborn, W.C.1

Lapidosus will adhere to stone and is being extensively used for the restoration of decayed stonework.

Old buildings showing signs of decaying stonework can be so effectively treated that the original faces with all mouldings and enrichments can be obtained and made to resemble the sound old stonework.

When stone is decaying early treatment is desirable.

Lapidosus is also useful as a Facing Composition. Brick, concrete or rough stone buildings can be faced to resemble wrot stone-faced buildings and property values are increased.

Lapidosus-Faced Patent Stone also supplied

SEGRAVE, 71 Hdrs (1 son, 2 daus); succ. his bro. as 15 Baron 1921 and is a co-heir to the Baronies of FitzPayne, Kerdeston and Dynham. Lord Arundell's family, which provides an effective example of religious "continuity" since medieval times, produced famous soldiers. Sir Thomas Arundell of Wardour (the "Valiant") was cr. a Count of the Holy Roman Empire by Rudolph II, Emperor of the Romans, in 1595, for taking a Turkish standard at the battle of Gran while serving in the Imperial Army in Hungary. On his return to England he was cr. 1 Baron in 1605. One of the most stirring episodes of the Civil War was the defence of Wardour Castle by Blanche, Lady Arundell, in the absence of her husband, mortally wounded in the Royal cause. His son, the 3 Baron, who dislodged the enemy and blew up the Castle, suffered five years' unjust captivity in the Tower, the victim of the perjury of Titus Oates; but he was released in 1683, and was Keeper of the Privy Seal to James II: Wardour Castle, Tisbury.

Barry, RT REV. MGR WM, D.D., Scholar, Theologian, and Man-of-letters—b. in London 1849, by descent a Hibernicized Norman of the S.W. of Ireland (family refugees from co. Cork after the great Irish famine). From Oscott he passed to the English Coll. at Rome, where he had Cardinals Franzelin and Tarquini for Masters of Divinity, and was examined for his degree by Father Perrone. He was ordained in Rome, where he remembers the sittings of the Vatican Council and the entry of the Italian troops by the Porta Pia. A Vice-Presidency of Birmingham Seminary was followed by his appointment to the Chair of Divinity at Oscott; later he was engaged in mission work at Wolverhampton, and his subsequent charge at Dorchester gave him such leisure for literary labours as freed him from giving up to a parish talents that were meant for mankind. Dr Barry has studied Hebrew and Persian literature, and is master of Greek, Latin, French, German, Italian and Spanish; he has lectured in America and at the Royal Institution, and was the deliverer of the Centenary address on Edmund Burke, both in Dublin and London, in 1897. His first novel, The New Antigone, was published anonymously in 1887, and its success has since been repeated by The Place of Dreams—The Two Standards and Arden Massiter: he has contributed a History of the Papal Monarchy to Mr Fisher Unwin's "Stories of the Nations" series, and has written studies of Newman and Renan for the "Literary Lives" series. In Heralds of Revolt he has collected some of his essays; while his Tradition of Scripture and other works have been translated into various languages. To be various yet expert in all that he undertakes is Dr Barry's achievement—a rare one in the history of literature; this faculty, and the light robe in which he is able to cloak profound learning, constitute him the most brilliant Quarterly reviewer and Dublin reviewer of his generation. He became in 1907 Canon of Birmingham, and in 1923 was apptd Prot. Ap. to H.H., when he was also the recipient by Papal brief of the Holy Father's congratulations and blessings on his efforts as a priest and public writer during half a century. In 1926 he published a volume of Memories and Opinions; in 1927 Roma Sacra, a volume of essays to illustrate the genius of Catholic Rome; and in 1928 The Triumph of Life, or Science and the Soul, a defence of religion against current infidelity : St Peter's, Leamington.

Bourne, HIS EMINENCE FRANCIS, CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER—b. at Clapham 1861, s. of Henry Bourne (a convert), by Ellen, dau. of John Byrne, merchant, of Dublin. Both his father and g-father served the Post Office Department of the Civil Service with distinction, his father as Principal Clerk under the Receiver Gen. Educ. at Ushaw: at Old Hall, Ware; at St Sulpice, Paris, where he received the Diaconate in 1883; and at Louvain Univ. Ordained by Bishop Coffin, of Southwark, in 1884, he spent the next five years as assistant priest at Blackheath, Mortlake, and West Grinstead, where, having the spiritual care of boys, he showed that interest in their training and fortunes which had been fostered by a stay with the Salesians in Turin. Already devoted to the education of priests in its earlier stages, he left the orphan boys at West Grinstead in 1889, at the call of Bishop Butt, to found the Dioc. Sem. at Wonersh. He retained the Rectorship till 1898, together with the Chair of Moral Theology and H. Scripture, and made the institution so much of a model that it became, in a sense, the precedent for separate diocesan seminaries, and the best illustration of arguments he himself set forth in a series of still quoted articles in The Tablet. In 1895 he was named Dom. Prel. to Leo XIII and in the following year was cons. tit. Bishop of Epiphania, and Coadjutor to the Bishop of Southwark, whom he succ. in April, 1897. In the diocese of Southwark a nexus of social and "rescue" enterprises was formed during his rule. He enlisted lay co-operation in rescue work, and established two Ladies' Settlements for work amongst the poor. The development of Catholic Boys' Brigades, which marked his stay in Southwark, was the outcome of his old interests on boys' behalf. While yet the youngest member of the English Episcopate, he was translated to Westminster as Cardinal Vaughan's successor in August, 1903, and received the pallium in November. As the 4th of a glorious line, the Archbishop has a heritage of great traditions, understood, respected, yet interpreted and tempered in accord with the needs and ideals of a new generation. A strong man in his quietness and confidence, he made that strength felt in his conduct of the Eucharistic Congress of 1908, and especially in his handling of the difficult position created by the action of the Government in regard to the proposed Procession of the Blessed Sacrament in the public streets. In 1910 he consecrated the Cathedral of Manning's dream and Vaughan's accomplishment. The formation in 1911 of the two new ecclesiastical provinces of Birmingham and Liverpool reduced the Suffragan Sees of Westminster to four —namely, Northampton, Nottingham, Portsmouth and Southwark —the Archbishop of Westminster retaining precedence over all the other Archbishops and Bishops of England and Wales. His elevation to the Cardinalate in 1911 was hailed with joy by his flock and with satisfaction by his countrymen in general. In 1914 and 1922 he assisted, with Cardinal Gasquet, at the Conclaves which elected Benedict XV and Pius XI respectively. During the war, H.E. paid several visits to the troops on the Western Front and to the Grand Fleet. During a three months' tour (Jan.-March, 1919) in the Near East, he visited Egypt, Palestine, Syria, and the Balkans; D.C.L. (Oxon), hon. causa 1922. On this occasion he was greeted by the Vice-Chancellor as "fidei Christianae in tempore periculoso columen atque defensor" ("pillar and defence of the Christian faith in a time of peril"). His numerical place among the Abbots of Buckfast cannot be assigned, as not more than thirty-five names of his predecessors have been recovered. A few years ago it was believed that the Abbey dated from Cnut; but the latest researches assign its foundation to St Petrock in the 6th century. Buckfast was a Benedictine Abbey in St Dunstan's time, and was canonically restored by a decree of the Abbot-General of the Cassinese Congregation of the Primitive Observance in 1902. The Abbey became Cistercian in the 12th century by affiliation with Clairvaux. It was colonized by Benedictines from Pierre-qui-vire in 1882, being rebuilt on its ancient site, and is the only recovered abbey of those dissolved by Henry VIII: The Abbey, Buckfast, Devon.

Camb.; sometime lecturer at Mason Coll. Birmingham, and a Berkeley Fellow of Owens Coll. Manchester. Since 1905 he has written and lectured on his experiments at the Cavendish Laboratory, Cambridge, and his book The Origin of Life which has attained a world-wide circulation, supplies new evidence to support the theory that the living was at one time produced from the non-living, a theory which, in Mr. Butler Burke's opinion, if established, need offer to the straitest orthodoxy no apprehensions. Mr. Burke's new theory of bioplasm, according to many eminent authorities, marks "progress in the right direction." Himself an Idealist, he has contributed in his writings towards a modification of Leibnitz's monadology and Lotze's philosophy to the requirements of modern Idealistic thought. Butler, LADY (ELIZABETH THOMPSON)—b. at Lausanne, where her parents took a house during the early years of their married life, and had among their English visitors Charles Dickens. Her father, who, after leaving Cambridge, travelled widely, devoted himself to the education of his two daughters, one of them to become known as a painter, and the other (Mrs Meynell) as a writer. Her first important oil-painting was a religious subject—a "Visitation of St Elizabeth," which gained an Honourable Mention at the Vatican Exhibition of 1870. The fame achieved by the "Roll Call" at the 1874 Academy belongs to the romance of modern painting. "The Remnants of an Army" is in the Tate Gallery; "Quatre Bras" is in the National Gallery at Melbourne; "Scotland for Ever!" is in the Town Hall at Leeds; while "Steady the Drums and Fifes!" is in the possession of the regiment whose bravery it commemorates—the "Die Hards" of the Peninsular War. Of the two pictures purchased by Queen Victoria, "Rorke's Drift" is at Windsor, and "The Roll Call" is at Buckingham Palace. In 1877 she m. the late Gen. the Rt Hon. Sir William BUTLER. Her first prose work, to the writing of which she brought a fidelity all her own, A Nun, her Friends, and her Order (a life of Mother M. Xaveria Fallon) appeared in 1892 ; and, only second to her fame as a poet, is that won for her as a writer of fiction. The Handsome Brandons—The Dear Irish Girl—A Daughter of the Fields—A Girl of Galway—A Union of Hearts—Judy's Lovers—The Luck of the Fairfaxes, and A Favourite of Fortune are a few of the books which have delighted boys and girls and their seniors. In some of these works, hardly less than in her verse, she has captured more than any other living writer a pure and distinctive Irish note, and in this sense she may rank as the greatest living "nationalist." Her Rhymed Life of St Patrick completes her claim to be the Poet Laureate of Ireland. In 1913 she published a first volume of Reminiscences, entitled Twenty-five Years. Mrs Hinkson m. (1893) Henry A. Hinkson, R.M., barr.-at-law (d. 1919 ; 2 sons, 1 dau.).

Lovat, LORD (SIMON JOSEPH FRASER, K.T., K.C.M.G., K.C.V.O., C.B., D.S.O.), Hon. Col of Lovat Scouts Yeomanry; D.L. for Inverness-shire—b. 1871, e. s. of 15 Baron by Alice, dau. of T. Weld-Blundell, of Ince Blundell; educ. at Fort Augustus Abbey School and Magdalen Coll. Oxford; succ. his father as 16 Baron (of Scotland) and 3 Baron (of the U.K.); served as Lieut in 1 Life Guards and 2 Batt. Cameron Highlanders successively. Not since the '45 had there been such a gathering of the Fraser Clan (on both occasions headed by their Chief) as in the first months of 1900, when Lord Lovat enrolled his Scouts for the S. African War, an act of patriotism which, with his own personal service in the field, was rewarded by a C.B. and a D.S.O. The Scouts again served under their Chief's leadership during the European War, when he was Brig.-Gen. commanding the Highland Mounted Brigade (Dardanelles operations 1915), temp. Major-Gen. 1916; Director of Forestry (temp. Brig.-Gen.) 1917-9; Chmn of R. Commn on Forestry 1919; Chmn co. of Inverness T.F. Lord Lovat is owner of some of the finest sporting ground in Scotland, and of Beaufort Castle, completed by the late Lord Lovat in 1886, and standing on a portion of the site of the Castle of Downie, described by Sir Walter Scott in his Tales of a Grandfather. When he was appointed Chmn of the Forestry Commn in 1919, he had already gained experience as a war-time Director of Forestry, and his valuable contribution of timber for the national needs was the result of the systematic afforestation he had carried out for years on his Inverness-shire estates, which are only part of the 180,000 acres that he owns. He has made adventurous travels, sporting and otherwise, in Abyssinia and elsewhere. He m. (1910) Hon. Merry del Val, H.E. CARDINAL RAFAEL—b. in Portman-sq., London, 1865, 3 s. of H.E. Don Rafael, Marquis Merry del Val, then Sec. to the Spanish Embassy, London, and subsequently Spanish Ambassador to Austria and to the Holy See. His father (descended from a branch of the co. Waterford family of Merry established in Spain) married the only dau. of the late Don Pedro José de Zulueta, Count de Torre Diaz, by the dau. of Brodie McGhie Willcocks, sometime M.P. His Eminence is thus the g-s. of an English lady ; while his mother was educated in England and lived there until her marriage. The future Cardinal's own upbringing was more or less English, for from Baylis House, Slough, he passed to the Jesuit Coll. of St Michel, Brussels, and thence to Ushaw. After his Ushaw course, he went to Rome and entered the Accademia Ecclesiastica and by order of Leo XIII attended the Gregorian Univ. to prepare for the priesthood. While still a student and only in minor orders he accompanied Mgr Ruffo Scilla, Papal Envoy for Queen Victoria's Jubilee in 1887. He was ordained at the age of 24 for the diocese of Westminster, but was retained on special service of the Holy See as Cameriere Partecipante of Pope Leo. While one of the youngest prelates in the Papal household, he was entrusted with many important missions, and in 1893 he was appointed Master of the Robes and Privy Chamb. to Leo XIII, and assigned apartments at the Vatican. He was Sec. to the Commission on Anglican Orders in 1896, and in 1897 proceeded as Papal Delegate to Canada, to report on the adjustment of the claims of the Canadian Bishops, as to separate Catholic schools in Manitoba, with the policy of the Provincial and Dominion Governments. On the report which he made to the Holy See, Leo XIII issued the famous letter to the Catholics of Canada Affari Vos—an admirable exposition of the principles underlying Catholic education. He was President of the Academy of Noble Ecclesiastics 1899-1901, and was cons. tit. Archbishop of Nicæa in 1901. In the same year he published his book on The Truth of the Papal Claims, and visited London as Papal Envoy at the Coronation of King Edward VII. He was Sec. to the Papal Consistory convened after the death of Pope Leo in July, 1903, and succ. Cardinal Rampolla as Pontifical Sec. of State in the October of that year, being thereafter preconized Cardinal. His term of office ended with the death of Pius X, 11 years later. Since 1913, Archpriest of the Vatican Basilica and Prefect of the Fabric of St Peter's. In 1914 he was apptd Sec. of the S. Navarro, MRS DE (MARY ANDERSON)—b. in California 1859, of German and English descent; educ. by the Ursulines of Louisville, U.S.A., who helped to confirm in her the seriousness and graciousness of character she did not leave behind her at the stage-door. Her first appearance in London was made in 1883, her chief successes being as Juliet, and as the Galatea of W. S. Gilbert's Pygmalion. A little later, in the dual rôles of Hermione and Perdita, she achieved her greatest triumph. She left the English stage in 1888, in the height of her popularity, and in the following year married Mr Antonio de Navarro, and then forsook altogether (to use her own phrase) the

"rush and excitement of public life"; nor have the most flattering offers tempted her away from the quietude of the Court Farm, near to the old-world Worcs village of Broadway, but during the War, 1914-8, she came out of retirement in the cause of many war charities. Her beautiful voice has also been heard once or twice for the benefit of Father Bernard Vaughan's East-end charities. Mrs de Navarro is the author of a book of reminiscences, published in 1896, in which she has much to say about men and women of her acquaintance in England and America—Longfellow, Tennyson, Aubrey de Vere, Newman, and Manning among the rest. She also collaborated with Robt Hitchens in dramatizing The Garden of Allah: Court Farm, Broadway, Worcestershire.

Sayings and Doings of the Catholic Year

DECEMBER 1927—NOVEMBER 1928

DECEMBER, 1927

Writing on "Vocations to the Priesthood" in his Advent pastoral, CARDINAL BOURNE recalls his own founding, when Bishop of Southwark, of St Augustine's House, Walworth, for the residence and preliminary training of young men, aspirants to the priesthood, engaged in earning their livelihoods. He now looks forward to the establishment of a second house of the kind at Edmonton, where the work for convert clergymen formerly carried on at Begbroke and Hatfield will also be continued.

In a Middlesbrough pastoral, the BISHOP OF LAMUS writes of BB. John Fisher and Thomas More: "For our own comfort, for the strengthening of the Church in England, and for the greater glory of God, let us, by our prayers and increased devotion to these two generous martyrs, hasten the day of their canonisation."

Cardinal Bourne, Mr. J. F. Hope, the Hon. Evan Morgan, Lady Denbigh, and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, address a London gathering in aid of the Catholic Women's League weaving-schools in Bethlehem.

At Montreal, before an episcopal tribunal, preliminaries are taken in the Cause of Mother Mary Rose Durocher, foundress in 1844 of the Congregation of Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. The Congregation has now 175 houses in Canada and the United States.

Fr Degen, of Coalville, obtaining the renewal of his licence for Sunday dancing at his parochial club, points out, in reply to opposition, that the amenities, discipline, and activities of the club are better than the perils and temptations of the streets.

At Malta is formed the first Council outside Great Britain of the Knights of St Columba, composed of members of the Army, Navy, and Air services.

To the eighth Conference on Higher Studies, held this year at Olton, papers are contributed by Fr Agius, S.J., M.D. ("The Pathological Conscience"), the Rev. C. Corbishley ("The Stigmata at Konnersreuth"), Fr H. Tristram ("Cardinal Newman's Conception of Education"), Fr Oswald, O.F.M. ("Hinduism and Christianity"), Fr Lattey ("The Virgin Birth"), and Fr Gumbley, O.P. ("Public Schools before the Sixteenth Century").

Opening a discussion on "Zionism" before the Catholic Citizen's Parliament at Vauxhall, Fr ARTHUR DAY, S.J., prophesies that an increasing Jewish population in Palestine and the growth of mutual relations between Jew and Arab will tend to draw East and West together: Arab fanaticism will be softened, while the Jewish pioneer will awake to the significance not only of the Old Testament memorials surrounding him but to those of the New Covenant as well.

Bishop Hinsley undertakes a mission as Apostolic Visitor to the British Colonies in Africa concerning the native school development programme of the Government.

The first quarterly bulletin of the Catholic Council for International Relations, entitled A Catholic Survey, contains articles on "Methodist Machinations in the Baltic," "Catholicism in Germany," "The Mexican Riddle," and "The Papacy, Italy, and the League."

The British authorities co-operate with the Bishop of Hong Kong (Mgr Valtorta) in the rescue in China of Fr Wong (a British subject), two other priests, and seven nuns—happily effected by H.M.S. "Seraph."

Cardinal Bourne attends the Papal Consistory for the creation of five new Cardinals, including the Archbishop of Quebec and Archbishop Lepicier, formerly of the English Servite Province.

The Bishop of Middlesbrough (the doyen of the English bishops), on completing sixty years of priesthood, receives an affectionate letter from the Holy Father, an address from the Archbishop and Bishops of the Province of Liverpool, civic tributes, and the public presentation of £1,000 from his flock.

The first American Chapter of the Knights of Malta, recently established in the United States with exemption from armorial qualifications, is held in New York, the Grand Cross of Honour being conferred upon Cardinal Hayes. The ten lay members of the Chapter are all Americans prominent in finance and industry.

The body of the Ven. John Southworth, Martyr, discovered in 1927 during excavations on the site of the English College at Douai, is brought from Douai to St Edmund's College.

The body of Margaret Sinclair, the Scottish working girl and Poor Clare, for whose Process the preliminaries have been undertaken, is exhumed from Kensal Green and re-interred in her native city, Edinburgh.

A memorial to Fr Reginald Buckler, O.P., is unveiled in St Gregory's Church, Grenada, B.W.I., in the presence of the Governor, Sir Frederick Seton James.

Lady Plumer presents the certificates and prizes at the C.W.L. schools and settlement in Bethlehem.

Churches are opened during the month at Coppull (Liverpool) and Newtown, Wigan; a temporary church at Wickford (Essex) and a public oratory at Fonthill Abbey (Wilts). A church is begun at Birches Head, Hanley. King Manoel of Portugal opens a parish hall for St James's, Twickenham, of which he is a parishioner. At Macclesfield a Congregational chapel is acquired for conversion into a parish hall.

Destruction by fire of the greater part of Standon Lordship, an historic house in Hertfordshire and the forerunner of St Edmund's College.

JANUARY, 1928

The Marist Brothers keep the seventy-fifth anniversary of their work in London. Preaching at High Mass at St Anne's, Fr Sullivan, S.M. (rector), refers to the presence of the Mayor, Mayoress, and Councillors of Stepney, remarking that for three years in succession Stepney has had Catholic Mayors, all East Enders and all owing their early training to the Marist Schools. From their Spitalfields house, the Marist Brothers rapidly spread to Glasgow, Sligo, and Capetown.

Cardinal Bourne, eight other bishops, more than two hundred clergy, and a great company of teaching nuns of every Order, attend the requiem for Canon Driscoll, headmaster of the Cardinal Vaughan School. The Bishop of Brentwood pays tribute in a sermon to the Canon's work for secondary education, saying that he left a message to the clergy and the Episcopate to the effect that if we are to do our duty by the cause of religion in this country, we must, with the same spirit, and energy that have built up our elementary education, proceed to the building up of our secondary education.

Abbot's Grange, Gloucester, a fourteenth-century house with a pre-Reformation chapel, passes to the Caldey Benedictines by the gift of the Earl of Rothes (who fulfils the wish of his kinsman, the former owner, Mr. T. Dyer Edwards).

The annual Conference of Catholic Teachers, held in Lancaster, once more reiterates the Catholic demand for an equitable readjustment of the financial arrangements affecting Catholic elementary and secondary schools. The Bishop of Lancaster assures the Conference that Catholics are determined not to give up their schools or weaken their influence therein, and he reminds Catholic teachers that their calling amounts to a vocation, covering not merely the necessary secular instruction, but a spiritual training as well.

In a sermon at St Ann's, Vauxhall, BISHOP BROWN remarks that Catholics, as such, are not concerned with the fate of the Revised English Prayer Book: Nevertheless, it is worth while, in trying to gauge the religious standpoint of the country, to study the remarkable outburst of Protestant feeling which the discussion aroused in both Houses of Parliament. It illustrates the general feeling of the country, of which High Churchmen and Anglo-Catholics are no way typical. The typical Englishman of to-day does not want clear dogmatic teaching; he distrusts it, and his idea of public worship is quite opposed to a sacrificial act like the Mass. It is vain to sneer at the Church of England for its inconsistency and comprehensiveness; if sneer we must, let us boldly sneer at the English mind, of which the Church of England is a true reflection.

Issue, in English version, of the Encyclical De vera religionis unitate fovenda—a clear and detailed exposition of the true principles of religious unity and a warning against misleading methods of approaching the problem of Christian Reunion.

A few days later appears the long-deferred official report of the Conversations at Mechlin (1921-25)—a disappointing document, since it records only the points on which some agreement was reached, and withholds the full statement of what transpired on each side during the sessions. As Fr WOODLOCK points out, by far the most valuable part of the Report, namely, the frank statement of the points at issue between the Churches, is thus withheld.

At a meeting of the Nursery School Association, held at London University College, Mr. CHESTERTON expresses some doubts on present compulsory education: His first doubt was the effect of the systematising of modern education, with its tendency to eradicate all local dialects or varieties of speech, and to impose a standardised Cockney or Central Metropolitan pronunciation of the English tongue. Other misgivings arose from the tendency represented when we talk about secular education, undenominational religious teaching, the impartiality of the State, or the detachment of responsible government from all the spiritual speculations of mankind, compared with the other view that education is not merely instruction but covers the whole of life.

FR RONALD KNOX, reviewing a book which makes hay of "that beloved figment of the Presbyteries, the independent Celtic Church" (Major Hay's Chain of Error in Scottish History) says that, were he a millionaire, he would "send it Bible-wise to every manse in Scotland, for the better instruction of its inhabitants."

The Earl of Iddesleigh goes as emissary of the Catholic Council for International Relations to Albania with supplies for the starving Catholic population, distributed through the Apostolic Delegation and the Catholic clergy of the mountains.

In a Gateshead parish where a new school is being built, the parishioners lend the money free of interest under the stamp system made popular by the War Savings Certificates.

Death of Fr Philip Fletcher, the modern apostle of the Conversion of England. The body, after resting overnight in the chapel of Tyburn Convent, is borne on its last journey along the "Martyrs' Way" to Commercial Road Church, at the head of the procession being the familiar Ransom Cross, which Fr Fletcher had so often followed in the outdoor processions which he made familiar in English Catholic life.

Colonel the Master of Sempill presides at the first dinner dance of the Old Edmundian Association at the Hotel Cecil, the old boys present including Captain Stack, the pioneer flier to India.

The Duke of Marlborough, a speaker at the dinner of the Catholic

Association in London, remarks that if the heart of the individual member is true, then collectively all such associations of Catholics are linked in harmony with the eternal forces beyond this life.

FEBRUARY

The Catholics of Liverpool and the Northern Province mourn the loss of their Archbishop, distinguished for his championship of Catholic education, his broad outlook on social and public questions, and the courage and energy with which he took in hand the project of building a cathedral in Liverpool. Non-Catholic tributes of respect include those of his Anglican compeer, the Bishop of Liverpool, the Lord Mayor of Liverpool, and Lord Derby.

The public keeping of the anniversary of the Pope's coronation, observed abroad in countries diplomatically related to the Holy See, is this year extended to England. Following Benediction and the singing of Te Deum in the Cathedral, in the presence of members of the Diplomatic Corps, the representatives of Catholic societies, and a large congregation, the CARDINAL (conformably to custom) holds a reception at Archbishop's House. In a brief address, H.E. recalls how Papal policy decried and misrepresented during the World War had come to be vindicated; and rebukes the few noisy detractors of the Holy See to-day. Alluding to a recent attempt in France to minimise the present Pontiff's work for peace, H.E. shows that the Holy See is placed above mere politics and the strife of nations, and has a right to intervene when the eternal moral laws are to be asserted.

At a cost of £10,000 the trustees of the Fr Bernard Vaughan Memorial School acquire a large London County Council school in the East End, closed because of local migration. This they will convert into a new Catholic Central school for East London.

Writing, in his Lenten pastoral, of the English Martyrs whose cause is now being considered in Rome, CARDINAL BOURNE declares: "No one who has really studied and understood the history of these martyrs can honestly maintain that there is any real continuity of doctrine, worship, and discipline between the Elizabethan Church, still legally established in this country, and the Catholic Church set up among us by Saint Augustine, of which we Catholics, in union with the Apostolic See, are the sole legitimate representatives."

On Ash Wednesday the Cardinal inaugurates in Westminster Cathedral the new League of intercession and prayer for the Cause of the 252 Venerable English Martyrs now being heard in Rome. On the first three Sundays of Lent, special sermons are devoted to the Martyrs in the churches of the diocese of Westminster.

Addressing the Catholic Citizens' Parliament, BISHOP BROWN notes the difference between public education in Scotland and England—the first always denominational, the other since 1870 undenominational. In England, the question of the single-school area and the redundant Church of England schools must be dealt with before the full cost of the voluntary school and its buildings would ever be forthcoming from public funds. The problem is extraordinarily complicated, even the Hierarchy having as yet no definite scheme to put forward.

Cardinal Bourne, at the second annual meeting, congratulates the Society for the Maintenance of the Apostolic See on the success of the great public demonstration on the anniversary of the Holy Father's coronation, the arrangements for which were carried out by the Society. VISCOUNT FITZALAN urges the extension of the Society, not only to every diocese in England, but throughout the world.

The Sunday Times prints an article from the Hon. Evan Morgan appealing to Britain against the anti-Catholic barbarities in Mexico, and protesting against the silence of the press regarding them. Prompted thereto by Mr. Morgan, the Daily Express sends a special correspondent to Mexico to investigate the situation on the spot.

Sale of Hales Place, an historic Catholic house near Canterbury, including the fine Pugin church (subsequently demolished) with all its fixtures. The high altar and the Sacred Heart altar are happily secured for the new church at Dulwich, and the Lady altar and pulpit for the new church at Cliftonville.

The Bishop of Salford, commanding the work of the Catholic Emigration Society, states that it is the intention of the religious authorities of the Northern Province to establish an agricultural college for the instruction of intending emigrants in modern methods of farming.

Pell Wall Hall, near Market Drayton, is bought by the Brothers of Christian Instruction (whose mother house is in Jersey) for use as a school.

MARCH

In a letter to the Bishop of Durham, Mr. BLUNDELL, M.P., rebuts, by evidence from his own family archives, the Bishop's aspersions on the civil allegiance of Catholics in the seventeenth century, made to excuse the policy pursued against them.

The Apostleship of the Sea and the Society of St Vincent de Paul coordinates their work for seamen by means of a joint council, with an office at 66 Victoria-street, S.W.1.

The ABBOT OF FORT AUGUSTUS, supported by Lord Moncrieff and other speakers, urges at Edinburgh the formation of a national organisation to check leakage, and mentions that a start has been made in a small way in Edinburgh. In the ABBOT'S opinion, the country would be Catholic by now if we had been able to hold all the children who have passed through Catholic schools.

Preaching for the Silver Jubilee of Tyburn Convent, CARDINAL BOURNE appeals to the generous on behalf of that community, so that a fitting memorial may rise on the spot enriched with the blood of martyrs.

The report of St Andrew's Hospital, Dollis Hill, submitted to the annual meeting, shows a deficit of £1,076 and a building debt of £281.

Addressing a C.T.S. rally at Bolton, FR BEDE JARRETT asserts that the Blessed Sacrament is the chief means of unity, and hence of real peace. Our hope is in the Sacrament of God's Body and Blood. We believe that if we can get men on their knees to receive Him Who has the power to be the Food of mankind, He will move men in the way of generosity and sympathy.

The Minister of Education receives a deputation from the Catholic Education Council on the subject of further grants-in-aid to Catholic secondary schools.

A former Wesleyan chapel in Horseferry Road is opened as the fourth chapel-of-ease in Westminster Cathedral parish, and the headquarters of the Association of Perpetual Adoration and Work for Poor Churches.

Churches are opened during the month at Stanley (Liverpool), Addingham (Wharfedale), in the outskirts of Swansea, and at New Malden (Surrey); and begun at Hounslow and Earby (Yorkshire).

A church commemorating soldiers of the Mediterranean and Egyptian Expeditionary Forces is opened at Helmieh (Egypt) by the Apostolic Delegate.

APRIL

On Good Friday, the Way of the Cross is made publicly in several towns and villages in England and Wales. In Hyde Park, FR VINCENT MCNABB preaches to a large crowd from an Evidence Guild platform, the Stations being displayed from a platform alongside. At Woolwich, the Stations are preached in the market-place.

In an editorial summing-up of the articles of its special correspondent in Mexico, the Daily Express says: "President Calles and his Administration have incurred the censure of the civilised world for indulging in cruelties and persecution unjustified by the requirements of government."

The Bishops, after their Low Week meeting, record a resolution of heartfelt sympathy with the Bishops and Catholic people of Mexico.

Following Mr. Bernard Shaw's denunciation of religious persecution in Mexico, distinguished French Academicians join in a manifesto signed by men of letters without restriction of tongue or creed. Mr. Belloc, Mr. Chesterton, and Fr Martindale sign as English writers.

The Knights of St John take possession at Rhodes of the auberge, restored to them by the Italian Government, which belonged to the "Tongue" of Italy until the sixteenth century.

To the denial of the Dean of Battle, who said in a lecture that the Church and Abbey of Battle had never belonged to "the Roman Catholics," LADY CATHERINE ASHBURNHAM (the Dean's neighbour) opposes ample historical evidence for the dependence of both abbey and deanery on the Pope before the Reformation.

Thanks to the heroic work of Sisters of Mercy who staff St Joseph's Home, Hove, forty-seven aged and infirm men are withdrawn to safety after a fire had broken out in the Home.

The report of the C.T.S. shows a fall in membership of some hundreds. BISHOP BIDWELL, at the annual meeting, says that it is essential to the activities of the Society that its membership be maintained. The Society is trying to double its present membership of fifteen thousand by the centenary day of Catholic Emancipation—April 13th, 1929.

The Lord Mayor of Liverpool (Miss Margaret Beavan, a non-Catholic) is one of the speakers at the annual demonstration of the progress of the Cathedral Building Fund. A musical programme is given by the already formed Metropolitan Cathedral Choir, drawn from twenty-six church choirs of the city, under Dr Dixon of Lancaster Cathedral.

During the month, churches are opened at Whitley Bay (Northumberland), Shepshed (Leics.), Horsforth (Yorkshire), West Moors (Dorset), Broadgreen (on the eastern outskirts of Liverpool), and Ribbleton (Preston).

MAY

Defending the civic integrity of the English martyrs in a sermon at Cambridge, CARDINAL BOURNE maintains that "No Englishmen have shown more loyalty to the Crown in difficult circumstances than our Catholic forefathers. Just as nowadays there is a definite contract between Sovereign and people that he should profess himself a faithful Protestant, and failing to do so has no claim in law on their allegiance, so in the days of Elizabeth there was, in virtue of her coronation, a contract between the Queen and her people that she should be a faithful Catholic." Speculating as to what would happen in the event of the Sovereign ceasing at some future time to be Protestant, H.E. remarks: "How would such a contingency be met by many Englishmen? There will certainly be a number who will say that, having a Sovereign whom they respect and revere—as much as we respect and revere His present Gracious Majesty—they do not wish to be governed by any other; they will not deny to the King of England alone among men the right of private judgment and liberty of conscience; and, however legally forfeit, their allegiance they will voluntarily renew, whatever be the religion he profess. Then we should have some analogy between the attitude of Catholic Englishmen under Elizabeth and that of the hypothetical Englishmen of the future—with this great difference: that the former maintained their allegiance while the victims of every kind of injustice."

The Bishops of England and Wales give their united approval to a national campaign to raise a Million Pound Endowment Fund for church extension at home. The funds collected will be invested by the trustees (the Cardinal Archbishop and the Archbishops of Birmingham, Cardiff, and Liverpool, Sir Henry Jerning-ham, and Messrs. Francis Weld, T. J. Callaghan, and Kenneth Ollard) and the income allocated through the Guild of Ransom to the various dioceses.

At the annual meeting of the St Francis Leper Guild, held in Pimlico, Dr. Herbert Vaughan states 5,300 or more of the world's two million lepers are annually assisted by the Guild.

The Bishops of Scotland, in a joint letter, call upon their flocks to pray for the persecuted Catholics of Mexico.

Publication of a full English rendering of the Papal Encyclical Miserentissimus Redemptor, on Reparation. The Holy Father expresses sympathy with the nations striving for readjustments and for a restoration of right order. But while men speak of national reparations, the Pope reminds them of the fundamental need of Universal Reparation, so that Christ may reign over all things, over civil and domestic society as well as over individuals.

Cardinal Kakowski (Archbishop of Warsaw), visiting London, is welcomed by his host, Cardinal Bourne, and by the Polish Minister and leading Polish residents. Visiting the Polish Church, Shadwell, H.E. is greeted with the Polish anthem played by a Polish band, and by an address in Polish from the Rector, who remarks that though many of his flock had never seen their native land, yet they clung to its ancient culture and traditions. Cardinal Kakowksi, in reply, speaks of the important part taken by religion in national life.

JUNE

When the Cardinal Archbishop attends the concert of the Holy Child Settlement in the East End, the girls sing a song of welcome to him composed for them by Fr Martindale :

" Your Eminence, we've heard of
How much you've got to do.
We couldn't do a third of
The work they pile on you.
So all the more we thank you
For putting off your rest,
And bidding Poplar rank you
Not only friend but guest."

The opening or beginning of eleven new churches in the archdiocese is recorded by the Cardinal in his Trinity Sunday Pastoral.

A marble statue of the Blessed Virgin is unveiled on the tower of St Mary's Church, Derby.

Speaking at a meeting of the University of London Animal Welfare Society, Fr Martindale says that our behaviour to animals should be based on a reverence for life as the creation of God, and man must be kind to animals not only when he likes them, but he most not omit from his consideration the man-eating tiger or the frivolous flea : " Some living things make me feel sick and panicky, but I do try to have the right mind towards them and if I have to kill them, I try to do so with worship. I base my whole duty to animals on God Who created them."

More than 1,000 names of Catholic officers in the navy appear in a list published by the Apostleship of the Sea.

Seventy converts are included in the 176 candidates confirmed by the Bishop of Leeds at New Wortley.

The Bishop of Lancaster opens at Grange-over-Sands a Community House for Augustinian nuns in connection with Boarbank Hall, a convalescent home for Catholic working men and women. A sum of £6,000 has been raised during six years of the Catholic Friendly Societies' Association.

Ordination of the Reverend Francis Gurd, one of twelve convert Anglican clergyman now studying for the priesthood.

The Anglican Bishop Barnes having declared that many of the old religious rites and ceremonies cannot be accepted by educated people, and Mr. H. G. Wells that the doctrines of religion are no longer commending themselves to intelligent people, Mr. Chesterton says in the Universe : " This is simply a fact of Natural History that they have observed. In taking their little walks abroad, they noticed that Alice Meynell was a fool, that Ferdinand Brunetière was a fool, that John Phillimore was a fool, that Francis Thompson was a fool, that Pasteur and Mendel were fools, that Belloc is a fool, that Fr Knox and Fr Martindale are fools, and so on through the whole train of charming and interesting coincidence. They, having passed in review this procession of manifest imbeciles and mental defectives, they discover that Catholic witnesses can be found only among such people." One name which would add lustre to Mr. Chesterton's list is naturally omitted—his own.

The Cardinal Archbishop, at a London meeting of the Rowal Pindi Medical Mission, says: "I am told that in England there are not nearly enough openings for all the women who qualify for the medical profession, and they might well find the outlet for their zeal in India. I do not think that in any other country would we find more earnest and generous hearted young people ready to offer themselves to the service of God and His creatures."

Thirty actresses make a two-day's retreat at the Cenacle Convent, Stamford Hill.

More than 100 members of the Catholic Police Guild receive communion in Westminster Cathedral on the feast of Corpus Christi.

One of the numerous processions and pageants in honour of the feast of Corpus Christi, is that of Middlesbrough, where no fewer than 35,000 persons pass through the streets. The coadjutor Bishop of the diocese is the bearer of the Sacred Host, and the venerable Bishop Lacy, in his eighty-seventh year, accompanied the procession in a car.

Fr Filmer, on behalf of the Guild of our Lady of Ransom, expresses a hope that a fund of £1,000,000 may be raised next year, first Centenary of Catholic Emancipation, "as a lasting monument of our gratitude for the liberties we now enjoy. The purpose of the Million Fund is to provide a regular income from which grants extending over a number of years can be made through the current fund to set a new mission, or a struggling one, on its feet."

Bishop Dunn, speaking at Derby, says he wishes to pay a tribute to one who is not of the faith, but was nevertheless a benefactor of the Nottingham diocese—the late Duke of Newcastle, whose generosity entitled him to their prayers.

"It is wrong to speak of the warmth of God's love to people who are shivering in the cold—we must clothe them first," says Fr Herbert Vaughan at a meeting of the General Council of the Catholic Needlework Guild, held at the London Mansion House.

The Cardinal Archbishop presides, and Lady Knill reads a letter from Fr Martindale suggesting that the modern girl, though she might not know much about needlework, was a generous person, who would, if called upon, give the Guild her valuable help. The annual report, presented by Miss Faudel-Phillips, states that the 581 branches of the C.N. Guild include an active membership of 14,256, an increase of over 2,000 during the past year.

The Abbot of Douai and his two immediate predecessors assist the Bishop of Portsmouth at the laying of the foundation stone of the new Abbey Church at Woolhampton. "You must have a hand in this," said the Bishop, and together all four placed their hands upon the stone. This incident occurred at the very hour on the very day at which the monks at Douai reached London twenty-five years ago, after their expulsion from France.

"Catholics will be fools and traitors if they do not stand for Justice for the schools at the coming General Election," declares Archbishop Mostyn opening a fête to reduce the debt on Hereford's Catholic Primary School.

"Catholic schools are being erected in the diocese of Hexham and Newcastle at the rate of one a month," states Bishop Thorhan when opening a new infants' school at Hebburn.

A propos of the celebration of his sacerdotal golden jubilee at St Wilfrid's Church, Northwich, it is stated that Fr Denis Gregan has preached 75,600 sermons.

Bought two years ago by the Edinburgh Education Authority and altered at the cost of £2,000, St Antony's Intermediate School, Leith, is opened by Lord Moncrieffe, who said that in providing the educational needs of their Catholic fellow-citizens, they established a sure foundation of mutual understanding and regard. Bishop Grayham expresses his appreciation of the provision thus made, and also of the delegacy which had given to the school the name of a saint.

Led by Bishop of Lancaster, 380 pilgrims leave Preston for Lourdes.

An extension to St Pelagia's House at Highgate for unmarried mothers and their babies described by Fr Vincent McNabb as "a dwelling place of Angels," is opened by the Cardinal Archbishop. Mr Cash states that although St Pelagia's is essentially a Catholic foundation the only test applied to applicants was: "are you in trouble?" He added that 97 per cent. of the girls received turn out well and come back afterwards to thank the Sisters.

A new church is opened at Padgate, near Warrington, by Bishop Dobson.

Lord Fitzalan, Lord Carson, and others sign a letter to The Times suggesting a memorial to the late Sir Charles Russell, most suitably a home for nurses attached to the Hospital of St John and St Elizabeth.

A special memorial chapel is to be dedicated to the late Archbishop Keating in the new Cathedral of Liverpool.

Cardinal Bourne opens a new wing, at St Pelagia's Home, West-hill, Highgate. To provide shelter for seventy more destitute and expectant unmarried mothers.

The Bishop of Portsmouth, assisted by Canon King and Canon Coughlan, lays the foundation-stone of the new abbey church of the Benedictine Order at Woolhampton, near Reading, the ceremony forming part of the commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the expulsion of the English Benedictines of St Edmund's Abbey, Douai, in 1903.

JULY

Cardinal Cerretti and his suite are received by the Holy Father before sailing from Naples for the Eucharistic Congress in Sydney. The party is increased by the inclusion of Mgr Caccia Dominioni, Maestro di Camera, one of the highest digni-taries at the Papal Court, his Holiness having decided to make him the bearer of a golden chalice to Sydney Cathedral as a souvenir of the Congress.

At the reception of the Society of St Augustine by Cardinal Bourne. Lord Fitzalan, on behalf of the President of the British Assocn presents to His Eminence the Grand Cross of the Knight of Malta. The Cardinal, returning thanks, recalled his visit to Rhodes mentioning that he was the first Cardinal to land on the Island since the expulsion of the Order by the Turks in 1522.

The new University Library at Louvain, designed by Mr Whitney Warren in Flemish renaissance style, and the gift of American subscribers is opened to the public. The Archbishop of Malines blesses the new Library, the keys of which are handed to the Rector by the United States Ambassador, Mr Hugh Gibson.

Cardinal Bourne, presiding at the annual meeting of the Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel at the Cathedral Hall, Westminster, says that sometimes, especially among the poor, there is a sense of injustice, their opportunities of obtaining justice, being now always adequate.

Cardinal Bourne opens the new Carmelite Convent of Our Lady of Trust, built at Saffron Walden at a cost of £20,000, the gift of Miss COATES of Reading. The building follows so far as possible the lines of the Carmelite convent founded by St Teresa at Avila, in 1562. After the opening service, held in a large tent, Miss Coates heads a procession through the building, and Cardinal Bourne, with the Bishop of Brentwood, blesses the convent.

The eighth centenary of Waverley Abbey, the monastery founded by the Cistercian Order, two miles south of Farnham, is observed by the celebration of Mass on the site of the old Church of St Mary, in the presence of more than 2,000 persons. The Cardinal Archbishop addressing the gathering from a temporary pulpit says that of the 800 years passed since the Abbey became a home of prayer, a full half had seen only the silent witness of these ruins, recalling to men's minds the many hundreds of monks whose nameless graves beneath that green sward they would bless again that day.

The new church of St Michael at Ashford, Middlesex, designed by SIR GILES GILBERT SCOTT, R.A. is opened by the Cardinal Archbishop.

Under the presidency of the Cardinal Archbishop, and in the presence of the Bishop of Southwark, the Society of St Vincent de Paul holds in London one of its largest gatherings. The President of the Superior Council, Major J. F. WEGG-PROSSER, K.S.G., in a survey of the Society's actual position, pronounces it full of hope and encouragement.

The centenary of the foundation of the Institute of Charity is celebrated at Ratcliffe College, Leicester, when the Cardinal-Archbishop speaks of the venerated Founder, Antonio Rosinini,

The Bishop of Minerva, celebrating his Silver Jubilee in the priesthood, receives an address of congratulation and the present of a motor-car.

AUGUST

For the Church of the Sacred Heart, Hove, and in memory of the late Countess Marie de Borchgrave D'Altena—for many years a devoted worker for the church—Miss Margaret Westlake has completed a stained-glass window from designs by her father, the late Mr. H. J. Westlake, F.S.A.

Pontifical High Mass, in the presence of Cardinal Archbishop, is sung by the Bishop of Lancaster amid the ruins of Furness Abbey, founded in 1124 by King Stephen.

Monsignor Canon BARRY resigns his pastoral duties in Leamington and takes up a congenial residence in retirement at Oxford.

With the English Martyrs for its general subject, the Cambridge Summer School of Catholic Studies has four lectures by Dom Bede Camm, and others by Fr Bede Jarrett, O.P., Fr Thurston, S.J., Fr Hallett, Fr McNulty, Dom D. Pontifex, O.S.B., Fr Harrington, Fr Cuthbert, O.S.F.C., Fr Newdigate, Mr Joseph Clayton, and many others.

Oxford is the scene of the inauguration of the first Franciscan Studies Summer School ever held in Great Britain. The students come from all classes, from all parts of the world, from every kind of religious denomination—or none; but it is significant that all assembled under the direction of the lineal descendants of St Francis himself, the school having been organised by Fr Cuthbert, O.S.F.C. Among the references made by various speakers was one to the words of St Francis on Peace: "Even as in your mouth do you proclaim Peace in like manner take heed that ye have it yet more fully in your hearts."

The Cardinal, visiting Harpenden on St Dominic's Day, lays the foundation stone of a new church to be dedicated to Our Lady of Lourdes. His Eminence also preaches at the Consecration of the Church of Our Lady of the Assumption in Warwick Street.

On hearing of the appointment of Dr Richard Downey to be the new Archbishop of Liverpool, Miss Margaret Beavan, the public-spirited Lord Mayor of that city, sends the following congratulatory telegram: "Liverpool rejoices in your appointment, and your welcome back to the city in which your excellent and abiding work was done will be most cordial and whole-hearted. May the blessing and guidance of God be yours in the solemn and responsible office to which you have been called."

In gratitude of the signing of the Kellogg Pact a High Mass of thanksgiving is celebrated at Westminster Cathedral.

A pilgrimage is made to Usk (Mon.) to commemorate the Welsh martyr, Fr David Lewis, who suffered in that town in 1679.

The meeting of the Pax Romana Congress at Cambridge is attended by a large band of delegates from English, Irish, Scottish, and foreign universities. In the absence in Australia of Fr Martindale, S.J., President of the English Federation, Mr Edward Bullough, M.A., directed the Congress, the delegates visiting Oxford, and then London.

The new church of the Holy Family, at Small Heath, Birmingham, is opened by Archbishop McIntyre.

Cardinal Cerretti, Papal Legate, arrives in Sydney for the Eucharistic Congress, and is welcomed by Archbishop Cattaneo, Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Carr, of Sydney, and Bishop Heylen, of Namur. The Papal delegation includes ten other high ecclesiastics from the Vatican. By the same vessel travel a number of Bishops and priests from Asia and Europe, and several Papal counts and knights, the gorgeous colouring of whose uniforms, added to that of some of the sacerdotal vestments, give to the occasion a brilliance rarely seen in a ship in an Australian port. Sixteen thousand school-children, waving Australian and yellow and white Papal flags, line the streets from the wharf to St Mary's Cathedral, where a great throng gather about the doors waiting for the Cardinal's blessing. The Holy Father's message was: "Tell my far-distant but most beloved children of Australia I shall follow the progress of the conference day by day, and shall rejoice with them for the glory which will redound to the Sacred Host and for the graces which shall be showered down with abundance on this beloved land and on its sons and daughters." Cardinal Cerretti, in a statement to the Press, expresses his delight at returning to Sydney, where he had spent a happy period of over two years as Apostolic Delegate.

SEPTEMBER

Seventy thousand persons gather outside St Mary's Cathedral, Sydney, for the inauguration of the Eucharistic Congress. Archbishop Kelly gives an address of welcome, the Bishop of Namur officially opens the Congress, and Fr Sheehy reads the Papal Brief appointing Cardinal Cerretti as Legate.

The Brief makes the following reference : " History records that in 1817 Fr O'Flynn, from Ireland, the first duly accredited priest to land on Australia's shores, lay in hiding in a humble Catholic home in Sydney. At the time of his deportation, which quickly followed, he left the Blessed Sacrament in a lowly receptacle in that house, so that it might be a consolation to the faithful till the coming of another priest." This reference is to the house of William Davis, a blacksmith, where the Blessed Sacrament was kept for two years, carefully tended, till a priest was authorised to land in Sydney.

At the next day's High Mass, Archbishop Mannix preaching to some 60,000 people (9,000 within the Cathedral and the remainder in Hyde Park within range of powerful wireless amplifiers) refers to the rise of the Catholic Church in Australia from a handful of Irish prisoners, poor, ignorant, and leaderless, to present-day power and influence, with a vast chain of churches, headed by the great and beautiful Cathedral of St. Mary.

As the Mass proceeded, wireless carried every stage of it to the thousands kneeling upon the grass.

At the culminating ceremony of the Eucharistic Congress the Blessed Sacrament is carried through the city by the Cardinal Legate. After the celebration of High Mass at St Patrick's College at Manly, the Cardinal carrying the Sacred Host to the wharf, boards a specially-fitted ferry-steamer in the Papal colours, which journeys in glorious sunshine round the harbour. On reaching Circular Quay, a procession is formed through the streets. Three thousand returned soldiers, grouped according to their old battalions, march in the procession, while the canopy is borne by eight holders of the Victoria Cross. The benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given when the Cardinal reaches the corner of the Cathedral. The Papal blessing closes the Congress.

When Cardinal Cerretti and a thousand others are the guests of the Archbishop of Sydney, Mr. Bruce, the Commonwealth Prime Minister, says that the Eucharistic Congress, bringing delegates from all over the world to Sydney, must contribute to the world's peace, if only by the spirit of good-will and brotherly love shown by a young nation.

Cardinal Bourne sings High Mass in Westminster Cathedral in celebration of the 25th anniversary of his translation to the See of Westminster, wearing a set of rich vestments in medieval style, with Byzantine details, presented to him by a number of clergy and religious communities in recognition of the occasion. His Eminence receives the following letter from the Lord Mayor of London :

" Dear Cardinal Bourne,—I hope your Eminence will permit me, on behalf of the City of London, to join in the congratulations you will be receiving on the completion of your silver jubilee as Archbishop of Westminster. During that period my predecessors and I have had the advantage of your sympathy and co-operation in innumerable works of social and patriotic service, and therefore the anniversary which you are now celebrating is an event which gratifies and interests us immensely. That you may long be spared is the earnest wish of my fellow citizens and myself.—Yours sincerely, C. A. Batho, Lord Mayor."

A pilgrimage of the Guild of Our Lady of Ransom, probably the largest in Sussex since pre-Reformation times, is made to Chichester in honour of the Ven. Ralph Crockett and the Ven. Edward James. A procession of a thousand pilgrims follows Fr Filmer from the Church to the site of the martyrdom on Broyle Heath.

The golden jubilee of the aged Bishop of Middlesbrough, himself unable to be present, is celebrated at St Mary's Cathedral.

The Holy Father addresses to the bishops an encyclical Rerum Orientalium recalling the efforts made by former Popes to promote Oriental studies and to bring about a more profound acquaintance with Oriental matters, especially among the priests, with a view to making easier a return to the unity of the Roman Church of those Churches separated from it by schisms.

OCTOBER

In the demise at ninety-two of Dr Abraham Brownrigg, Ireland loses the oldest member of the hierarchy.

When the Cardinal blesses the St Nicholas's Home for Mothers and Babies, 31 Highbury-hill, N., Fr Stewart, S.J., explains that the purpose of the home is to provide for unmarried mothers and their babies and to give the mothers an opportunity of making a fresh start in life. Those responsible for the conduct of the home do not advocate the separation of mother and child. It is remarked by the Cardinal that the homes meet a necessity that would always continue, and, as they are the means of saving many bodies and many souls, they are conceived in the true spirit of Christian charity.

A Pastoral written by the late Bishop of Plymouth for the eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost, and read as he had directed, dwells on the necessity of constant prayer for God's Kingdom: "It is the only real weapon which gives our position strength . . . and our people do not easily recognise their most real power." Allusion is also made to recent public pronouncements of the Holy Father, which are noticeable for His Holiness's vision of a coming unity of the human race—a new Christendom.

Among the new churches recently opened is that which Fr Ignatius O'Gorman, S.J., has built at Wimbledon Park—the first in the diocese to be dedicated to the Kingship of Christ. New churches are also opened at Halstead in Essex, Moorthorpe in South Yorkshire, and Birches Head in Staffordshire.

In British South Africa there are now twenty-two Vicariates and Prefectures Apostolic.

The coadjutor Bishop of Malacca blesses a site for a church in that city presented by a generous pagan who also defrays the entire cost of the building.

The Cardinal opens the third Catholic Church in the Hampton district.

At Preston a large Catholic Foreign Missionary demonstration is attended by the Cardinal Archbishop, the Archbishop of Liverpool, Archbishop Goodier, the Bishop of Lancaster, Bishop Biermans, Sir Michael O'Dwyer, and many prominent citizens.

Among the new Mayors elected in England and Wales for 1928-9 are Alderman Cartwright (Bournemouth), Alderman McGiff (East Ham), Alderman Makepeace (Coventry), Councillor Murphy (Wigan), Councillor Ollard (Wisbech), Alderman Potter (Blackpool), Councillor Purcell (Woolwich), Councillor Smith (Darlington), and Councillor Wright (Hedon).

King Manoel of Portugal opens the united Catholic charities bazaar at the Kensington Town Hall, in which no less than twenty-five Catholic charities are represented.

Fr Joseph Degen, helper of the unemployed miners in and around Coalville, is offered employment for twenty of his unemployed boy and girl parishioners by a shoe firm in Leicester. He is also able to announce to his congregation that the Bishop of the diocese has obtained for them a portion of the fund bequeathed some years ago by a Canadian gentleman for ten of the most needy parishes in England and Wales.

Bishop Bidwell gives his support to a conference organised by the Catholic Women's League for considering openings in social service for Catholic women and girls.

At the annual Committee meeting of St David's Home, Ealing, the Cardinal Archbishop, Lord Fitzalan and Col. Heywood plead for these, the worst sufferers of the War, who have now come to the Home to die. Lord Fitzalan refers to the generous benefaction received from the executors of a non-Catholic lady, Mrs. Pickering, who, after a visit to the Home, had been greatly impressed by the admirable management of the institution and the devoted care of the nuns.

The Catholic Council for International Relations, one of whose aims is the bringing about the Peace of the World through the League of Nations, holds a conference in Birmingham. Among the speakers are the Bishop of Hexham and Newcastle, the Bishop Auxiliary of Birmingham, Abbot Cabrol, O.S.B., Fr Bede Jarrett, O.P., Fr John Baptist Reeves, O.P., Fr M. D'Arcy, S.J., Fr L. Geddes, S.J., Dom Ignatius Rice, O.S.B., Fr Denis Sheil, Lady Winefride Elwes, and Mrs Halford Hewitt. The Earl of Iddesleigh, who is devoting himself to the cause of Peace, reads a message from the Holy Father giving his Apostolic Blessing to the Conference.

The Cardinal and the Archbishop of Liverpool are the principal guests of the Father Director, Fr Woodlock, S.J., and the Prefect and members of the Sodality of the Immaculate Conception at their annual dinner. The Earl of Denbigh speaks of the general Catholic position from the point of view of the older generation and the Hon. Evan Morgan from that of the younger, and among other guests are Bishop Butt, the Earl of Iddesleigh, Sir Thomas Molony, Fr Stewart, S.J., and Fr Chichester, S.J.

The High Mass at Westminster Cathedral on Armistice Day is offered in perpetual thanksgiving for the victory of the allied armies and for the happy repose of our dead. Throughout the whole of France religious ceremonies are held for the anniversary, and even in neutral Spain a minute's silence is observed.

Cardinal Merry del Val keeps his Silver Jubilee as a Member of the Sacred College.

The Governor of the Punjab attends the consecration, by the Archbishop of Simla (with the Bishops of Ajmer and Allahabad as assistants) of the new Bishop of Lahore.

At a reception held by the Cardinal on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his receiving the Pallium, the Provost and Chapter of Westminster make a presentation, on behalf of the clergy of the diocese, of whom over 200 are present.

The Holy Father receives a deputation sent to him by Marshal Pilsudski, President of Poland, and exhibits a photograph taken during his Nunciature in that country, where he is seated between the Marshal and Mr. Herbert Hoover, the new U.S. President, with whom he was then frequently in touch.

Lord Byng of Vimy, with Lady Byng, fulfils his first public engagement as Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police by attending in full dress uniform the Solemn Requiem at Westminster Cathedral for Catholic members of the Metropolitan and City Police Forces.

Lady Strickland, at a reception offered to her and her husband by the Ladies of Malta, announces that she will endow an English Catholic College in Malta with £100,000. The trustees of the gift are to be Mr. Amery (Secretary of State for the Dominions), the Governor of Malta, and Cardinal Bourne.

The new church at Newbury, opened by the Bishop of Portsmouth, has a foundation of concrete, costing over £2,000.

The Cardinal Archbishop and other bishops appoint public prayers for the Sovereign's recovery from grave illness, and the HOLY FATHER expresses his deep personal concern. God save the King!

THE TREASURY OF THE FAITH SERIES

A CONCISE STATEMENT AND EXPLANATION OF CATHOLIC DOCTRINE IN 36 VOLUMES

ARRANGED AND EDITED BY THE

REV. GEORGE D. SMITH, Ph.D., D.D.

PROFESSOR OF DOGMATIC THEOLOGY AT ST EDMUND'S COLLEGE, OLD HALL, WARE

Each Volume (containing 96 pages), in wrapper, 1s.; cloth bound, 2s.

IT has long been felt that a useful purpose would be served by presenting in a convenient and accessible form to the ordinary reading public an exposition of the whole body of Catholic teaching; and this not with a view to controversy, but in order to provide Catholics with that full and complete knowledge of the truths of their faith that they ought—and indeed desire—to possess.

To supply this need Burns Oates and Washbourne are publishing, at a low price, a series of books designed to cover the whole field of dogmatic theology. Each volume is written by a competent theologian, who explains in simple language some important point of Catholic Doctrine. The primary object of the series being neither apologetic nor controversial, but expository, the subject-matter of the volumes has been arranged accordingly. While every point of doctrine receives adequate treatment, the chief emphasis is laid upon the fundamental dogmas of the faith, concerning which, by reason of their sublime and mysterious nature, the knowledge even of Catholics themselves is apt to be less detailed and explicit. Incidentally, however, the series has considerable apologetic value, as setting forth in all their wonderful harmony the divine truths of the Christian revelation.

A complete prospectus and list of titles will be sent on request.

LITURGY FOR LAYFOLK

A NEW AND UNIFORM SERIES
OF THE LATIN-ENGLISH TEXTS.

THE publication of "The Missal for the Laity," in Latin and English, with the rubrics printed in their traditional colour, was made possible by that revival of interest in Liturgy which distinguishes the Catholic layfolk of this time and of this country. To have a part in the development of this liturgical movement, to supply its demand for certain books, to forestall and so to stimulate its desire for others, and also to attempt to revive in current liturgical printing those true traditions of craftsmanship which have been obscured for two hundred years, has now become the publishing policy, as it has long been the ambition, of Messrs. Burns Oates & Washbourne. All the volumes of the series are uniform in size with "The Missal."

THE DAY HOURS OF THE CHURCH. The complete text of the Horæ Diurnæ in Latin and English. Edited by the Benedictines of Stanbrook Abbey. With an Introduction by Abbot Fernand Cabrol, O.S.B. Printed on toned Oxford India paper, about 1,000 pages. New edition, with supplements for Great Britain, Ireland and America. From 9/- to 18/6.

THE MISSAL FOR THE LAITY. The latest (1928) edition has been completely revised, and contains supplements giving the special Masses for British dioceses and the Religious Orders. Prices 5/- to 40/-.

THE SMALL MISSAL. Mass and Vespers for Sundays and Holy Days. Printed in black only. Boards, 1/-; Cloth, 1/6; Pluvis, 2/6; Leather, 3/6, 5/-, 7/6.

THE LITTLE OFFICE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY. In conformity with the edition of the revised Roman Breviary. Prices from 2/- to 8/-.

THE LAYFOLK'S RITUAL. The Complete text, in Latin and English, of all those Offices of the Ritual at which layfolk have occasion to assist. With an Historical Introduction to each Office by Abbot Fernand Cabrol, O.S.B. Prices 3/- to 12/6.

THE PRYMER. Containing the Little Office, Office of the Dead, Litanies, etc. Prices 5/- to 15/-.

AMPLEFORTH COLLEGE

YORK

WESTMINSTER ABBEY. DIEULWARD, 1608.
AMPLEFORTH, 1802.

THIS School is conducted by the English Benedictines of the Abbey of St. Lawrence, the lineal descendant house of Westminster Abbey.

The Staff is composed of English Benedictine Monks, who are graduates of Oxford University. The course of studies is arranged in preparation for University, Army, Navy, and Air Force Examinations, and the standard aimed at is that of the Scholarship papers of Oxford and Cambridge.

Every boy in the School follows a course of Science.

All Boys must pass an entrance examination. Foreign boys are not admitted to the School.

The School has been approved by the Army Council.

ASTON LE WALLS HOUSE

BYFIELD, NORTHANTS.

THE School is conducted by a Priest assisted by a trained certificated lay staff.

The ruling principle is to prepare boys by public and competitive examinations for whatever career they may eventually take up.

The objection that one not infrequently hears to the average public school education is: that it does not go far enough, that it is too exclusive, excellent as no doubt it is for the boy who is going on to one of the Varsities with a view to the Services or the Bar or such kindred professions; it has taught him very little that is going to help him to earn his living in business or commerce, and this is an age when there are more young people than ever earning their living in business houses.

Doubtless there is an element of truth in this; the Head of the Firm, to whom in due course the juvenile candidate has to present himself in quest of employment, can hardly be expected to offer a munificent salary in return for a detailed knowledge of the classics, many of which will have been read in Greek or Latin, nor can he pay very highly for the candidate's facility for grappling with Mathematical Concepts.

On the other hand it would be ridiculous to suggest that any boy, no matter what his career was to be, could afford to do without a thorough Classical and Mathematical training.

In attempting to blend the Classical and Mathematical with the Modern and Commercial side many difficulties had to be faced, far too numerous to go into in such limited space; however these were not insuperable, and now every boy from the beginning does a complete course in both branches.

For some years the School has been a centre for the Oxford School Certificate Examination (Senior and Junior), and now it is also a centre for the London Chamber of Commerce and the Royal Society of Arts Examinations.

The latter examination was taken for the first time in July, and in order to put the experiment to a real test two of the three candidates entered for the School Commercial Certificate had passed the London Matriculation the previous June in Latin, Mathematics and English. Both these candidates obtained the full certificate of the Royal Society of Arts, taking amongst other subjects Book-keeping by double entry, Economic Geography, Economic and Social History, Commerce, and Shorthand, scoring four first class passes and attaining the minimum 80 words a minute in Shorthand. The Junior entry was equally satisfactory, three out of five getting the full certificate, scoring three passes with credit.

This was a gratifying result, and what was an experiment is now the custom, and we look forward to securing our first Bachelor of Commerce degree in the near future.

Nor is the social and athletic side of school life neglected. There are facilities for all the usual school games, the records set up for some of the events at the annual athletic sports compare favourably with some of those of the Public Schools. There is a school orchestra and an excellent boys' library.

BEAUMONT
OLD WINDSOR

THIS Catholic Public School gives the full Course for Oxford and Cambridge Higher, and School Certificates, and prepares for Responsions at the Universities. It has been approved by the Army Council for nominations to Sandhurst.

There will be Entrance Scholarship Examinations in March and June.

Beaumont furnishes a strong contingent to the Officers' Training Corps, and opportunities are offered for annual training in camp. There is a large tepid swimming bath, and those who have passed the swimming test are allowed to join the Rowing Club. Besides the ordinary school sports, facilities are afforded for learning riding, jumping, and the general management of horses.

ST JOHN'S JUNIOR SCHOOL

This Preparatory School is beautifully situated within the College grounds.

At both schools there is an experienced certificated Matron.

For terms, etc., apply to the Rev. A. Chichester, S.J. (Rector), Beaumont, Old Windsor.

THE

Oratory School

CAVERSHAM PARK, Nr. READING

THIS SCHOOL, which was founded by Cardinal Newman and is attached to the Birmingham Oratory, is conducted by Fathers of the Oratory, assisted by a staff of lay graduates.

Intended to afford to Catholic youth the advantages of the great Public Schools of England, it provides a special preparation for the examinations for Woolwich, Sandhurst, the Naval Service, the Universities, etc., and furnishes a contingent to the Officers' Training Corps.

Foreign boys are not accepted.

The School is situated in its own park of about a hundred acres, on high ground, at the base of the Chiltern Hills, two miles north of Reading. The railway journey to London takes forty-five minutes.

St Edmund's College

OLD HALL, WARE

Established, at English College, Douay, 1568. Reconstituted as St Edmund's College in 1793 on the site of the "Old Hall Green Academy," dating from 1769, near the earlier foundation of 1749.

President

THE VERY REV. CANON EDWARD MYERS, M.A.

ST EDMUND'S, the oldest Catholic College in England, stands in its own grounds of nearly 400 acres, on one of the highest hills in Hertfordshire, at a distance of 26 miles from London. The Station (Standon, on the London & North-Eastern Railway) is about a mile from the College.

For many years St Edmund's has aimed at giving a thorough public school education. With this object, the College has recently been reorganized, and the House-System has been reintroduced.

As a beginning, three separate self-contained houses have been constructed. They are known as Challoner's, Talbot's and Douglass'. Douglass House will be used exclusively for those who wish to offer themselves for the Priesthood. Challoner's and Talbot's, each with its own House Master, are designed exclusively for those who are to aim afterwards at one of the professions or services, or the higher walks of commercial and industrial life. In this way the boys in Challoner's and Talbot's, and other similar houses, will enjoy a school life uniquely adapted to their needs as Catholic laymen. As members of houses, they will be assured of a definite home-life, with individual care and interest.

STUDIES: Boys are prepared for the Universities, and for Army, Navy and other Entrance Examinations.

At St Hugh's, the preparatory school for St Edmund's, boys are taken from the age of seven years. St Hugh's is particularly designed to make easy the transition from home to public-school life, while securing a thorough education.

All the installations and services at St Edmund's are of the latest and best description. Electric light, modern sanitation, home-farm.

Ushaw College, Durham

Founded at Douay, 1568. Removed to Crook Hall, 1794.
Settled at Ushaw, 1808.

USHAW is the descendant of Cardinal Allen's Foundation. Its system of Education prepares boys for the Priesthood, the Law, Medicine, and the Army and Navy.

Greater attention is paid to the Modern side, and special tuition is given in advanced Mathematics and Science at the request of parents. All boys receive a general science course.

The Staff consists of members of the Secular Clergy, many of whom are graduates of English and Continental Universities.

The Examinations of the London University are taken, Certificates in which secure exemption from Preliminary examinations of the Legal and Medical Professions.

The provision for games is ample, and covers 60 acres of football fields, cricket grounds, tennis courts, ball places, and racket courts.

A lake in the College grounds provides skating in winter.

Attached to the College is a covered swimming bath, 71 feet long by 30 feet wide. In addition, a well-equipped gymnasium is under the charge of a competent instructor, who pays special attention to remedial work and to the physical development of each boy. Each class is trained in gymnastic exercises.

The dormitories are furnished, heated and ventilated on the most modern system; hot-water pipes warm the College throughout.

The Junior House serves as a preparatory school for boys of eight and upwards, and the times of study, sleep and play are arranged to suit the requirements of their age.

No boys are taken from other schools except with the most satisfactory references.

The charge for school stationery and books, for Medical Attendance and ordinary expenses in case of sickness, and for Gymnastic Instruction are included in the Pension. No entrance fee is required.

Drawing and Music are extra.

The College stands on a hill 600 feet above the sea level; its climate is most bracing, and is well suited to delicate boys. The Junior House is entirely screened from the North and East winds, and its playground is so arranged as to secure a maximum of open-air life.

DOUAI SCHOOL

WOOLHAMPTON, NEAR READING, BERKS

Midgham Station, G.W.R.: 45 miles from London; 10 miles west of Reading.

THE SCHOOL is attached to the English Benedictine Abbey, which was founded in Paris in 1615 under the patronage of St Edmund, King and Martyr, as a restoration of the Royal Abbey of Bury St Edmund's, suppressed by Henry VIII in 1539. The personal interest and gifts of Louis XIV of France and James II of England (who was buried in the Monastic Church) contributed largely to its prosperity until the French Revolution. In 1818 it was revived at Douai and in 1903, as the result of the French Law against Associations, transferred to Woolhampton on the southern edge of the Berkshire Downs.

As a Public School its aim is to provide the traditional English Public School education in a Catholic and Benedictine atmosphere.

CONVENT OF THE VISITATION

ROSELANDS, WALMER

Under the Patronage of
H.E. the CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER
and of His Lordship the BISHOP OF SOUTHWARK.

Staff of Certificated Teachers.

THE Convent, with its church and school buildings, is beautifully situated at a short distance from the sea, and is surrounded by extensive grounds.

Together with the advantages of a superior English education, the pupils have special opportunities for attaining proficiency in modern languages and accomplishments.

The late Lady Georgiana Fullerton, when staying with her brother, Lord Granville, at Walmer Castle, used frequently to visit the church and convent. Writing to the Tablet, she gave the following appreciation of the education given by the Sisters :

" Of the merits of St Francis of Sales' Daughters, whether as nuns or teachers, little need be said. In his day they were called ' the holy Maries,' and the spirit bequeathed to them by their Holy Founder and their first Mother, St Jane Frances de Chantal, has not departed from amongst them. . . . If parents want for their children bracing sea-air . . . joined to all the other advantages of a good Convent School they could not find them better supplied than at Roselands."

The air is most beneficial to delicate girls, and the number of the pupils being limited, individual care is given to each child.

For the last twenty-nine years the School has been a private centre for the Oxford Local Examinations, for which, at the desire of the parents, pupils are very successfully prepared, as also for the Honours Certificate in the Higher Local Examination for Women, the London Matriculation, the French Examinations, (Brevet Simple, Brevet Supérieur, Baccalauréat) and for the Examinations of the Royal Academy of Music.

The Piano, Violin, and all accomplishments are taught after the best and most approved methods.

A course of Shorthand (Pitman's, Dutton's and the Sloan-Duployan systems), Typewriting and Book-keeping, if desired.

The railway station is within a short distance of the Convent.

For further particulars apply to the Reverend MOTHER SUPERIOR.

The Archconfraternity of the Guard of Honour of the Sacred Heart was canonically established by a Brief of Pope Leo XIII in 1888, and the Convent appointed as the Head Centre for England, Ireland, Scotland and the British Colonies. All information concerning this devotion may be obtained by applying to the above convent.

FOR INDEX SEE END OF BOOK

Secular Clergy New Common Fund

ESTABLISHED IN 1803

Chief Administrator :

Right Rev. Monsignor Canon HOWLETT, Cathedral Clergy House, Francis Street, Westminster, S.W.1.

Administrators :

Very Rev. T. J. Canon RING, Rev. T. TWOMEY, Very Rev. Canon Palmer, Rev. P. MASON.

THIS Fund helps to support the Aged and Infirm Priests of the Dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, Portsmouth and Brentwood.

Owing to the great increase in the number of priests in these four dioceses, there is ever an increasing demand upon the Income of the Society, on the part of the sick and aged priests. All bequests and donations to this Fund are invested in the names of the Trustees of the Fund, in safe securities, and the interest thereof is allotted to the sick members.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to those who have the means to contribute to this Fund, and thus assist those who have devoted their lives to the spiritual needs of Christ's Flock, but who are temporarily or permanently incapacitated from performing their sacred duties. Over 500 Masses are said annually for the living and deceased benefactors of the fund.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to the Treasurer, the Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Howlett, Westminster Cathedral, S.W.1.

The following Form of Bequest is recommended :

"I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of the Secular Clergy New Common Fund, the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, to be raised and paid by and out of my personal estate, to be applied towards carrying out the charitable designs of the fund.

The Secular Clergy Fund

for the Diocese of Hexham & Newcastle

CALLED

THE NORTHERN BRETHREN'S FUND

ESTABLISHED 300 YEARS

SUPERIORS :

Very Rev. J. CANON O'DONOGHUE, Consett, Co. Durham.

Rev. H. COGAN, D.D., Benton Grange, South Gosforth, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

Rev. J. MILROY, St Joseph's, Benwell, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

Treasurer and Secretary :

Rev. F. WILKINSON, St. Antony's, Walker-on-Tyne.

THIS Fund has for its objects the relief and maintenance of Secular Priests belonging to the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle, who, from sickness, age, or infirmity have become incapable of continuing their Missionary labours.

It is supported partly by the subscriptions of its Members, the Clergy, and partly by the benefactions of the charitable.

Each Member says one Mass monthly for its living and deceased Benefactors, so that upwards of 2,000 Masses are offered up each year for this intention.

Persons may become Benefactors by a donation or bequest free of legacy duty of £10 or more ; thus helping to make provision for those " who have borne the burden of the day and the heats " in their service, and at the same time availing themselves of the benefits of the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar.

In addition to the 1,900 Masses said each year, 20 Masses will be offered specially for the donor on his or her decease. Benefactions may also be made in behalf of the deceased.

Pope Leo XIII., by a Rescript dated 8th June, 1890, granted :

1. To the Members and Benefactors, for ever, a Plenary Indulgence at the hour of death, provided they invoke, at least in their heart, the Holy Name of Jesus.
2. On behalf of all deceased Members and Benefactors for ever, the favour of the " Privileged Altar " for every Mass offered up for them according to the Rules of the Fund.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to the faithful on behalf of this Charity, which preserves their devoted Clergy from want in sickness and old age, after they have spent their health in their apostolic labours.

Lancashire Infirm Secular Clergy Fund.

President—Very Rev. J. E. Canon Clarkson, St. Oswald's, Old Swan, Liverpool. Telephone: Old Swan 327

Treasurer—Very Rev. Canon M. Duffy, Newhouse, Barton, Preston. Telephone: Broughton 31

Secretary—Very Rev. J. T. Canon Bousfield, St. Mary's, Blackburn. Tel. 6026.

THE Dioceses of Liverpool, Salford and Lancaster have one Common Fund for the support of the Secular Clergy who are Members of the Fund, and who through age or infirmity are incapable of performing missionary duties. It is supported by the subscriptions of its Members, and partly by the benefactions of the charitable.

A Benefactor is entitled to forty special Masses for each £10 he contributes or bequeaths (free of legacy duty) to the Fund. He can, at his option, have these Masses all at one time, either before or after death; or half at one time and half at another.

Deceased Persons may be made Benefactors, and will receive full Spiritual benefits.

Every Member of the Fund offers the Holy Sacrifice once each month for all Benefactors, living or dead. The number of Members is now about five hundred and fifty, so that Benefactors annually have a share in over six thousand Masses.

Donors of less than £10 share in the monthly Masses, but are not entitled to any special Masses.

Further particulars may be had on application to any of the above-named Officers of the Fund, or to any of the Lancashire Secular Clergy.

Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund

FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE INFIRM AND SUPERANNUATED CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE of SHREWSBURY

A DONATION of £10 entitles a Benefactor to twenty special Masses; a donation of £5 to ten special Masses; said either immediately or on death of donor; but not exceeding 200 Masses for any one Legacy or Donation.

Smaller donations (not less than £1) entitle the Benefactor to a share in the monthly Masses for ever.

About eighty Masses are offered every month for all Benefactors, living and dead.

Particulars from the Secretary—

REV. J. COLEMAN, D.D.,
St Peter's, Stalybridge, Cheshire.

FORM OF LEGACY TO THE FUND.

I BEQUEATH to the V. Rev. Henry Edward Hazlehurst, D.D., of St Joseph's Birkenhead, Treasurer of the Society called the "Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund," or to the Treasurer of the same for the time being, the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, for the benefit of that fund; and I earnestly hope that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the repose of my soul; but I do declare that this expression of my hope shall not be construed as a condition or trust attached to the same Legacy; and that the compliance with this my hope shall not be deemed necessary to give effect to the same Legacy.

MENEVIA SECULAR CLERGY FUND

THIS Fund has been established for the relief of Priests of the Menevia Diocese, who, through sickness or old age, have become incapable of performing Missionary duties. Owing to the poverty of the Fund, only a very small allowance can be made to any Priest who may fall sick, and therefore donations are earnestly solicited. All who contribute £1 or more will, for ever, have a share in the Monthly Masses which all the Members are bound to say for benefactors, living and deceased. Those who contribute at least £5 will, in addition to the Monthly Masses in perpetuity, have a corresponding number of Special Masses said for their Intention.

Donations and bequests should be made to the Treasurer, Rev. T. EADSFORTH, Catholic Church, Connah's Quay, Nr. Chester. Further particulars can be obtained from the President, the Rt. Rev. Mgr. NIGHTINGALE, St Mary's, Wrexham; or the Secretary, Rev. A. O. POZZI, St Anthony's, Saltney, near Chester.

CLIFTON SECULAR CLERGY FUND

This is the only fund (1) for the assistance of Priests temporarily disabled by sickness; (2) for the support of those permanently incapacitated through age or infirmity.

In addition to an annual Mass for all benefactors, living and dead, each member of the Society undertakes the following obligations: Upon the death of a donor or subscriber of £10, one Mass; £25, two Masses; £50 or upwards, four Masses; £1,000 or upwards, one annual Mass.

Birmingham Johnson or Secular Clergy Fund

Administrator : Rev. Leonard S. Emery, The Presbytery, Stanley Street, Coventry. Tel. : 8536.

Secretary : Rev. Walter Poulton, St Joseph's, Nechells, Birmingham. Tel. : East 235.

THIS Fund has for its object the support of the secular clergy of the Archdiocese, who, on account of age or infirmity, are no longer able to continue their Missionary labours. Any person may become a benefactor by a donation or bequest, free of legacy duty, of £10 or more, or he may make another, whether living or dead, a benefactor, by a similar donation on his behalf. Forty Masses are offered for each benefactor, and these may be said, at his option, either before or after his death.

Nearly 200 Annual Masses are also offered by the Members of the Association for all the benefactors of the Fund, living or dead.

CATHOLIC EVIDENCE GUILD

WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN LAY CATECHISTS

President—H.E. the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.
Headquarters—St. Peter's Hall, Westminster Cathedral Precincts, Ashley-place, S.W.1

The C.E.G. is an organisation of Catholic lay-men and lay-women established to spread the teaching of the Church by means of open air meetings in parks, market-places, streets, and elsewhere.

The Guild consists of active Members who are (1) Speakers, or (2) Auxiliaries who help in the other activities of the Guild ; and of Associate Members who assist the work by special prayer, and by the payment of a minimum annual subscription of 2s. 6d.

SPEAKERS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED. In order to help intending speakers the Guild has organised courses of Lectures in Apologetics, and provides every assistance in matters of study and preparations for the work.

(1) Tuesday, Training Classes for Speakers.
(2) Wednesday, Lecture (arranged by Dr. Arendzen).
(3) Friday, Speaking Practice.

All work is voluntary, but subscriptions and donations are earnestly asked for the upkeep of the Hall (the official centre, Lecture Hall of the Guild), for Crucifixes and Platforms, for Books on Apologetics and other Literature for the Library.

All may become Associate Members, wherever their home may be, and thus assist in the work.

ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY for FOREIGN MISSIONS

MILL HILL, LONDON, N.W.7.

(Founded by the late Cardinal Vaughan.)

THIS Society is a Congregation of Secular Priests bound by oath to spread the Gospel in heathen lands. No people in the world have a greater responsibility in this respect than the inhabitants of the British Isles, whose vast Empire comprises fully one-third of the heathen population of the world. The following Mission Fields are entrusted to the care of the Mill Hill Missionaries.

The Archdiocese of Madras, the Vicariate Apostolic of the Upper Nile (Uganda), The Prefectures Apostolic of Sarawak, of North Borneo, of Kashmir and Kafiristan, of Buea (British Cameroons), of Kavirondo, and of Basankusu (Belgian Congo); and Missions in New Zealand and the Philippines.

For the exclusive purpose of educating and training Foreign Missionary Priests, Colleges are established at Mill Hill for the study of Theology, at Roosendaal, Holland, for Philosophy, and at Freshfield, Liverpool, and Burn Hall, Durham, for Humanities, besides other places abroad.

The Priests of St. Joseph's Society number nearly 400, and about 550 students are being educated for the Foreign Missionary Priesthood in these Colleges.

More vocations are required and more material help is needed to maintain and extend these colleges and to help the priests on the Foreign Missions. Subscriptions may be sent for any of these purposes to the Right Rev. Bishop J. Biermans, Superior General, St. Joseph's College, Mill Hill, London, N.W.7, and further information may be gained by application to the Superior General, or to the Father Rector at Mill Hill and at Freshfield.

Attached to the Society is a SISTERHOOD, St. Joseph's Missionary Sisters, also founded by Cardinal Vaughan and following the Rule of the Third Order of St. Francis. The Sisters work in the Borneo and Cameroon Missions, and at home they have charge of the domestic arrangements of the Society's Colleges, and they have an important share in the work of the Rescue Society in the Diocese of Salford. The Novitiate is at St. Mary's Convent, Vaughan House, Freshfield.

Postulants, who are always needed, may apply to the MOTHER GENERAL, St. Joseph's Convent, Patricroft, near Manchester, or to the SUPERIOR GENERAL at Mill Hill.

ASSOCIATION FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH : : : :

with its headquarters at Rome under the direction of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda, is an organization of the Faithful of every Nation, not only to further the evangelization of the heathen world by united prayer, but also to support the Missionaries in their toil by the collection of alms, and distribution to the Missions of the money offered by the Faithful.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP: (1) The daily recitation of Our Father and Hail Mary, with the invocation: St Francis Xavier, pray for us; and (2) the annual subscription of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly or one half-penny weekly. (3) Special Members contribute one guinea or more yearly. (4) Life Members contribute a sum of not less than £10.

ORGANIZATION: The usual method of collection is by the formation of Groups or Circles of Ten Members, of whom one acts as Promoter. The Promoter receives the contributions of the Group and circulates among them the Annals of the Association (published quarterly).

Cards of Membership, a Booklet of Instructions, and copies of the Annals can be obtained at 59 Eccleston Square, S.W.1

His Holiness Pope Pius XI, addressing the Bishops of the Catholic World in the Encyclical "Rerum Ecclesiae" 1926, writes:

"Is there a greater or more signal charity we can vouchsafe to our neighbours than to strive that they be withdrawn from the darkness of superstition and instructed in the true faith of Christ? Nay rather this excels all other works and evidences of charity as much as does the mind excel the body, heaven the earth, and eternity time; and whosoever exercises this work of charity, as far as in him lies, shows that he accounts the gift of faith at its true worth, and besides by sharing with the wretched heathen this very gift, of all the most precious, and the others with which it is connected, thereby manifests his own gratitude to the Divine Goodness."

Director: The Right Rev. Mgr. CANON FRANCIS ROSS.
Assistant: Rev. BASIL GUDGEON.
Hon. Treasurer: GUY ELLIS, K.C.S.G.

WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN EDUCATION FUND

FOUNDED BY CARDINAL MANNING IN 1866.

TO provide Reformatory, Industrial, Poor Law, and "Special" Schools, and for the Care of Juvenile Adults, etc., in the Counties of London (north of the Thames), Essex, Hertford, and Middlesex.

Certified Schools and Homes.—St John's Reformatory School for Boys, Walthamstow, E.17; St Mary's School for Boys, North Hyde, Southall; St Charles's School for Boys, Brentwood; St Vincent's School for Infant Boys, Mill Hill, N.W.7; Nazareth House School for Boys, Southend; St Mary's Orphanage for Girls, Walthamstow, E.17; Sacred Heart Orphanage for Girls, Homerton, E.9; St Joseph's School for Girls, South Road, Southall; The Manor House (Ophthalmic School) for Boys, Chigwell; St Anne's Home (Ophthalmic School) for Girls, Portobello Road, W.11; Pield Heath House School for Mentally Defective Girls, Hillingdon; St Francis School for Mentally Defective Boys, Hillside, Buntingford; Bigod's Hall School for Mentally Defective Boys, Dunmow; St Michael's School for Crippled Girls, Clacton-on-Sea; Etloe House for Mentally Defective Girls over 16, Leyton, E.10; St Elizabeth's School for Epileptic Children, Much Hadham; Bank Sea Convalescent Home, Dovercourt.

To attain fully the objects of the Fund a large permanent income is required. The sums received from the generosity of the faithful are barely sufficient to meet even the most urgent demands of this necessary work; and, moreover, a constant effort is required to increase the number of contributors, so as to provide against a diminution of income. It is, therefore, hoped that all who have at heart the salvation of thousands of poor Catholic children, and especially of those who, through the neglect or loss of parents, are exposed to more than ordinary spiritual dangers, will, either by annual subscriptions or by donations, co-operate to the utmost of their power in maintaining and extending the annual income of the Fund.

Bankers: The Westminster Bank Ltd, 2, Victoria Street, London, S.W.1.

Auditors: Messrs Lescher, Stephens and Co., 6 Clement's Lane, E.C.4.

Secretary's Office: Archbishop's House, Westminster, S.W.1.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give to the Westminster Diocesan Education Fund the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, to be applied under the direction, and to promote the objects, of the said Society as if the same formed part of the funds arising from voluntary subscriptions, with liberty to apply such legacy as in aid of the said voluntary subscriptions; and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary of the said Society for the time being shall be a good discharge for the said legacy.

NAZARETH HOUSE

HAMMERSMITH, LONDON, W.

THE MOTHER HOUSE AND NOVITIATE OF THE CONGREGATION OF THE POOR SISTERS OF NAZARETH.
Telegraphic Address: "Religio, Hammer, London."

APPLICATIONS for the admission of candidates to the novitiate are to be made to the Reverend Mother General, who will be happy to furnish all particulars.

The Sisters devote themselves to the care of the Aged Poor of both sexes—irrespective of creed—and of Orphan and Incurable Children, whom they receive into Houses specially adapted for that purpose. To the Aged Poor and Incurable Children they give a permanent home; the Orphan Children they educate and fit for after life. The Institution has no funds and depends for support on the alms daily collected by the Sisters—the money, food and clothes bestowed by the generous and charitable. The Branch Houses in the Archdiocese of Westminster are: Nazareth House, East Finchley; Nazareth House, Isleworth; and Nazareth House, Southend, in Brentwood. In the Diocese of Birmingham are: Nazareth House, Oxford, and Nazareth House, Rednal, Birmingham. In Liverpool: Nazareth House, Great Crosby; Nazareth House, Lancaster; Nazareth House, Wavertree, and Nazareth House, Ditton (Home for Little Boys). In Newport: Nazareth House, Cardiff, South Wales, and Nazareth House, Swansea, South Wales (Home for Boys). In Down and Connor: Nazareth House, Ballynafeigh, Belfast, and Nazareth Lodge, Ravenhill Road, Belfast (Home for Little Boys). Ballarat: Nazareth House, Ballarat, and St Joseph's Home for Boys, Sebastopol, Ballarat. Also Nazareth House, Aberdeen, N.B.; Nazareth House, Middlesbrough; Nazareth House, Northampton; Nazareth House, Nottingham; Nazareth House, Southsea; Nazareth House, Southampton; Nazareth House, Bexhill; Nazareth House, Cheltenham; Nazareth House, Westbury-on-Trym, Bristol; Nazareth House, Kilmarnock, N.B.; Nazareth House, Londonderry; St Joseph's Home (for Boys) Londonderry; Nazareth House, Cardonald, Glasgow, N.B. (Telegraphic Address: "Nazarene, Glasgow"); Nazareth House, Heaton Park, Manchester; Nazareth House, Blackburn; Nazareth House, Sligo (Home for Boys); Nazareth House, Sandyford Park, Newcastle-on-Tyne; Nazareth House, Cape Town; Nazareth House Farm, Fourteen Streams, Cape Province; Nazareth House, Kimberley; Nazareth House, Port Elizabeth; Nazareth House, Durban, Natal; Nazareth House, Johannesburg; Nazareth House, Christchurch; St Joseph's Home for Boys, Midleton, Christchurch, New Zealand. Archdiocese of Brisbane: Nazareth House, Moreton Bay, Brisbane; Nazareth House, San Diego, California, and Nazareth House, Carlisle; Nazareth House, Exeter.

There is a Girls' Industrial School attached to Nazareth House, Aberdeen—a Junior Boys' Industrial School to Nazareth Lodge, Belfast. There is a certified Poor Law School for Girls attached to each of the following: Nazareth House, Middlesbrough, Nottingham, Northampton, Cardiff and Southsea; and Boys' Certified Poor Law Schools attached to Nazareth House, Southend, and Treforest. A Poor Law School for Small Boys and Girls to Nazareth House, Heaton Park, Manchester.

Many of the houses are burdened with debt, and alms in money or kind are earnestly solicited to meet pressing needs. Cheques and P.O. Orders may be made payable to Mrs Elizabeth Murphy, Superior General, or to the Mother Superior of any of the above houses.

THE WAYSIDE

OUR LADY OF THE WAYSIDE'S SETTLEMENT

30 & 37 BROOK GREEN, LONDON, W.6

(Tel.: Riverside 2959)

Under the kind Patronage of

H.E. THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER,

The Right Rev. Mgr. Canon Surmont, D.D., V.G., the Very Rev. Bede Jarrett, O.P., the Very Rev. R. H. J. Steuart, S.J., the Rev. J. P. O'Donohoe, S.J., the Rev. H. O'B. England, the Rev. C. Galton, S.J., the Rev. E. S. Sutton.

A permanent bed-sitting-room is given to a few ex-Anglican Sisters.

Temporary hospitality is also offered when necessary to other Converts, and under special circumstances to Catholic ladies.

There is no charge in either case, but those who are able are asked to make what offering they can.

The Wayside is affiliated to the Converts Aid Society in regard to the help given to ex-Anglican Sisters, and gives them a small flat for the use of an ex-Anglican clergyman and his wife, but is otherwise quite separate from them both financially and in its organisation.

The Wayside Clothing Depot will be most grateful for all gifts of men's, women's and children's clothing, both old and new for distribution.

The Welfare is for the benefit of the poorest part of the parish of Holy Trinity, Brook Green, and consists of a Baby Welfare (where a Catholic doctor attends weekly) and the usual parochial works. A Catholic Nurse visits the poor in their own homes. Anything for jumble sales will be welcomed.

Our Lady of the Wayside's Settlement is supported by voluntary contributions, and any donations will be most gratefully received.

All letters and inquiries to be addressed, and any cheques or donations to be made payable to the HON. SECRETARY.

The Secular Clergy Common Fund.

FOUNDED IN 1701.

Chief Administrator :
VERY REV. CANON SHEEN,
66 Crooms Hill, Greenwich, London, S.E.10.

Administrators :
Very Rev. Canon NORRIS, Very Rev. Mgr. NORTHCOTE, Very Rev. Canon O'FARRELL, Very Rev. Canon TYNAN, D.D., Ph.D

THIS Fund, whose history carries us back into Penal Times, was established to support Aged and Infirm Priests of the old London District, and is still the main support of such Priests of the four dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, Portsmouth and Brentwood—the old London District—who are members of the Fund.

The continual and, at times, rapid growth of the Secular Clergy working in these four dioceses is, year by year, increasing the demands made upon the resources of the Fund. The Administrators, therefore, feel confident that their appeal to the Catholic laity of the four dioceses on behalf of the sick and aged members of the Fund, who have spent themselves in their service, will meet with a generous response.

2,300 Masses are said every year by members of the Fund for all Benefactors, living or dead.

Donations should be sent to the Very Rev. Canon SHEEN, 66 Crooms Hill, Greenwich, London, S.E.10.

The following form of bequest is recommended :

"To the Very Rev. Canon John Sheen, or other the Chief Administrator for the time being of the Secular Clergy Common Fund for the Dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, Portsmouth and Brentwood, the sum of £ (duty free) for the general purposes of the said Fund, and I declare that the receipt of the Chief Administrator shall be sufficient discharge to my Executor."

Little Sisters of the Assumption

NURSING SISTERS OF THE POOR.

THE Little Sisters of the Assumption devote themselves exclusively and gratuitously to nursing the sick, among the poor and working classes, by day, and when necessary, by night. They take care of the home and of the children, and make themselves practically the servants of the poor and of their families, in order to win them to God.

The Sisters also give religious instruction to adults.

There are seven Convents of the Little Sisters of the Assumption in England, three in Ireland and five in America.

Postulants may apply to the Convent, Woodlands, Mycenæ Road, Blackheath.

Special prayers and Holy Communions are offered by the Community, who also ask the prayers of their patients and families for the intentions recommended to them by their benefactors. The Little Sisters of the Assumption earnestly appeal to the charity of the generous for help to carry on their work.

Subscriptions and donations, clothing of all kinds and food will be gratefully accepted by the Superiors: 14 Wellington Rd, London, E.; 133 Lancaster Rd, Notting Hill, London, W.11; 19 Cedars Rd, Clapham, S.W.4; Woodlands, Mycenæ Rd, Blackheath, S.E.3; 7 Chapel Field Rd, Norwich; 30 Union St, Chester; and 15 Greenfield Crescent, Edgbaston, Birmingham.

THE TABLET

THE INTERESTING WEEKLY NEWSPAPER AND REVIEW

FOR nearly ninety years "THE TABLET" has held a foremost position in the world of journalism—a position which has been recognised by non-Catholics generally as well as by Catholics.

¶ In the troubled, disorderly state of thought and action which marks the present day, the logical and sanely progressive note of "THE TABLET" is becoming more widely appreciated than ever. At home and abroad "THE TABLET" is being more and more sought for, more and more read, more and more quoted, is becoming more and more indispensable to all English-speaking folk who are interested in the fortunes of the Catholic Church, the Ark of Salvation.

¶ "THE TABLET" keeps its readers thoroughly au fait with the thought of the day on matters religious, political, social, economic, and literary.

¶ The Catholic layman who reads "THE TABLET" regularly fears no foe. He can hold his ground firmly against all comers, be they Rationalists, Materialists, Heretics, Schismatics, or whatever else they may be.

> "'The Tablet' is to-day one of the finest organs of Catholic news in existence . . . and no Catholic who is desirous of keeping abreast of the times can afford to go without it."—Columba (the official monthly of the Knights of St. Columba).

"THE TABLET" can be had, on order, from any newspaper shop anywhere at 6d. per week, or direct from

WILLIAM COOK & SONS

ORIGINATORS OF THE ORPINGTON FOWLS AND DUCKS AND THE PREMIER LAYING STRAIN SPECIALISTS OF GREAT BRITAIN

supply many of the most successful farmers in England with their breeding stock each season, and as all their birds are moderate in price and combine the outstanding advantage of breed characteristics with proved autumn and winter egg production, they prove to be a profitable investment. Breeds specialised in :—

BUFF AND WHITE ORPINGTONS BLACK AND WHITE LEGHORNS	Reliable Eggs for hatching, from 7/6 per dozen.
RHODE ISLAND REDS LIGHT SUSSEX WHITE WYANDOTTES BARNEVELDERS	Day Old Chickens, 12/6 per dozen upwards. Excellent Cockerels, from 21/- each.

Buff Orpington Ducks and Drakes always for Sale

WILLIAM COOK & SONS

cordially invite every reader of "The Catholic Who's Who" to write for a free copy of their Monthly Poultry Journal —the practical paper on fowls which they have published for forty-two years, as this contains valuable information on the feeding and management of stock of all ages, and on hatching and rearing.

Illustrated price lists free by mentioning publication.

W. C. & S. have been established for nearly 50 years, and are the well-known breeders of their name.

Their ONLY address is :—

ST. MARY CRAY, KENT

Fourteen miles from London (Holborn, Victoria and St. Paul's), and inspection of their nearly many thousands of birds is invited on weekdays. Visitors met at St. Mary Cray Station on receipt of a telephone message (Orpington 7.)
